HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,

July 28th, 1919.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

Since I last wrote we have had our Peace Celebrations. The Thanksgiving Services in Church on July 6th were held after very short notice, but the large and devout congregation testified to our spirit of acknowledgment of the mercies of God vouchsafed to the nation and ourselves by this great victory for righteousness. I could not help thinking of the very many sad hearts in the village at whose cost the success has been won.

On Sunday, July 27th, at 4 p.m., the Church was filled at our United Service in which Mr. Shrewsbury and Mr. Goldie took part. It was a great pleasure to welcome a large number who do not usually worship in S. James. I am glad to say that the offertory was good (over £9), and was divided between the "Star and Garter" Fund at Richmond and St. Dunstan's Hostel for Blinded Soldiers.

As I announced last month Canon Brookes will be in charge of the Parish during August. Papers requiring his signature may be taken to the Vestry before or after the 12 o'clock services on every Wednesday and Friday.

We had a record attendance at the open-air C.E.T.S. Meeting in the Vicarage Field, on Wednesday, July 16th. Excellent arrangements were made by the usual band of helpers, and an interesting address was given by Mr. C. E. Boone.

I am grateful for the generous response to the appeal for supplying the necessary cups, saucers, etc. for use at Parochial gatherings. Miss Brewer is kindly making the final arrangements.

A very beautiful and useful copy of "Hymns Ancient and Modern" has been presented to me for use in Church by Mr. E. Makepeace. I acknowledge this kindly act with many thanks.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

Parish News.

HAMPTON HILL FOOTBALL. This has been re-started, with the Vicar as President, Mr. Basey, Treasurer, and Mr. Gilbey, 85, High Street, as Secretary. Subscriptions are asked for to set the Club on its legs again after an interval of nearly five years, during which it has been doing "War Work."

FINANCE COMMITTEE. This was held on July 1st. Eight members were present. Mr. Evans reported that during the present quarter the Church Expenses have been well met, the average offertories for this fund having been £5 2s. od. weekly, this showed a considerable improvement, and there were no outstanding liabilities, he was congratulated by the Committee on his very satisfactory statement.

FREEWILL OFFERING FUND. Among the Societies which depend on this Diocesan Fund for money are the Bishop of London's Fund, East London Church Fund, Queen Victoria Clergy Fund, Church Schools Association, Sunday School Council, Council for Welfare of Lads, Board of Missions, Clergy Widows' Fund, Clergy Pension Institution, Additional Curates' Society, Pastoral Aid Society, and Scripture Readers' Association. Every Parish in the Diocese is asked to send each year a named sum and Hampton Hill's quota for 1919 is £52. Each member of the congregation is specially asked to help this fund by a small regular contribution, for which envelopes will be provided on application.

On giving up the charge of this fund, Mr. Poley has earned our best thanks for all the time and attention he has devoted to the work which is such an important part of our corporate life as Churchpeople in the Diocese. For the present the work is being undertaken by Mr. Carpenter.
