Vicar's Letter.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

We all enjoyed the visitation of the Arch-deacon of Middlesex. Many interesting things came out of the enquiries he made. All who were present expressed their pleasure at having had the opportunity of attending such a ceremony.

I was extremely gratified to have a fine day for the Ruri-decanal Mothers' Union Service. The serving of the tea to nearly seven hundred people was a great piece of organisation. Mrs. Terry and our members are deserving of praise for the speedy way in which all were satisfied. This is the first time the service has been held in the summer and I hope it will become a bi-annual event.

Having set my hand to the plough for raising one hundred shillings weekly, upon the success of which enterprise rests the certainty of having an Assistant Priest in the Parish, I am not going to look back until my task is accomplished. Slowly but surely promises are coming in, and I hope that before the Autumn arrives I may be in search of a suitable colleague. I do not expect those who have already joined the Assessment Scheme to give more. But as they only total about an eighth of the communicants, it ought to be easy to raise the desired amount amongst the seven-eighths remaining.

And now we do want a fine day for our Fête. As our dear Bishop is coming to open the Fête we shall no doubt have a record gathering. Perhaps we shall also have another record in takings. It would gladden my heart and the hearts of the Finance Committee if we netted two hundred pounds. And there is no reason why we should not do this even though money is tight. Anyhow, if you will all do your bit and best, it can be done.

It is a pity that our Patronal Festival comes so near the beginning of the holidays, because it makes it impossible to hold any social functions. It is also difficult to obtain special preachers as so many of the Clergy are on holiday. However, let all of us who are at home come together and offer thanks to God for all the opportunities of worship we enjoy in His House of Prayer.

Many of us are looking forward to a well earned rest at the seaside or in the country. I do hope that all who are fortunate enough to get a change will have a very happy holiday. I shall be away for the first four Sundays in August. Another Priest is coming to take charge of the Parish while I am away. He wants to hear of anyone willing to take him and his wife in. He requires two rooms and attendance. If anybody can supply this need please communicate with me without delay.

MISS DOROTHY HEAP, L.R.A.M., L.T.C.L., Experienced Teacher desires Pupils—Piano, Singing, Theory and Harmony. Preparation for all Examinations. Apply: 75, Hampton Rd., Upper Teddington

I remain,
Your faithful friend and Vicar,
FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.

Special Days of Observance.

July 25th, Feast of St. James; Patronal Festival. Holy Communion 7.30.

---

Missionary Association.

Intercessions will be said on Sunday July 12th, after morning service.

Meetings are held in the Parish Hall every Thursday at 8 p.m. to discuss the Handbook for the Persian Court. More stewards for the Court are needed, especially those who can take duty in the afternoon.

Special intercessions for the Missionary Exhibition are said every Friday at 5 p.m.

Advertisements for the Exhibition Handbook are urgently needed. Please apply to the Editorial Secretary (Miss Jakeman) as soon as possible.

Sunday School Outing.

The Sunday School is going for its Annual Outing to Bognor on Tuesday, July 21st. It is hoped that many parents and friends will join the party. They will be taken at the charge of six shillings each, without tea. Payments may be made to the Vicar at the Vicarage any Friday, from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. The Vicar will gratefully receive donations towards the expenses of the Treat.

Mothers' Union.

The Annual Rural Deanery Service was a wonderful and inspiring service. The Church was packed to the door, between 650 and 700 mothers being present. About ten branches brought their banners which were presented and placed in the sanctuary during the first hymn. It would be nice if all branches would furnish themselves with a suitable banner. Several of the Clergy were present. The Rural Dean read the lesson and the Vicar of Chiswick gave a very helpful address on "Consecration" as it concerns motherhood. The collection amounted to £6 16s. 11d. of which sum, £4 10s. was sent to the Forty-five Churches Fund.

After the service the whole company adjourned to the Vicarage garden and field where an excellent tea had been provided for them by Mrs. Terry the Rural Deanery President ably assisted by the members of St. James's Branch. Mrs. Hird had kindly provided some costume dances which were given on the lawn.

Lads' Club.

The Balance Sheet of the Hampton Hill Lads' Social Club is an interesting document. Great thanks are due to Mr. Creane and his band of workers for all they do for the lads and they are to be congratulated on the satisfactory state of their finances. The Club is closed for the summer months but will be opened again on the first Wednesday in September.

Finance.

The S. James's Fête on July 8th, is in all our thoughts and all concerned in the organisation thereof are working hard to ensure an extra large return for the liquidation of the Parish Hall Loans. We are sure that all readers are doing their best to make the Fête a success.

The Churchwardens and Finance Committee however have another thought in their minds which they cannot forget. The holiday season is just commencing and the Church collections will be below the normal for the next three months. Expenses however keep up to the normal level and there is little money in hand. Will you send a little help before you take your holidays? Do this and we one and all wish you fine weather and a glorious time while you are away.
