COLLECT

God of glory,
by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and hell:
fill your Church with faith and hope; for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

GOSPEL LUKE 24: 1-12

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women who had accompanied Jesus came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body.

While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'

Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

HYMNS

HYMN 1

Sing, choirs of heaven! Let saints and angels sing!
Around God's throne exult in harmony!
Now Jesus Christ is risen from the grave!
Salute your King in glorious symphony!

Sing, choirs of earth! Behold, your light has come!
The glory of the Lord shines radiantly!
Lift up your hearts, for Christ has conquered death!
The night is past, the day of life is here!

Sing, Church of God! Exult with joy outpoured!
The gospel trumpets tell of victory won!
Your Saviour lives; he's with you evermore!
Let all God's people sound the long Amen!

HYMN 2

You shall go out with joy and come again in peace;
the mountains and the hills shall sing and never cease;
the Son of God is ris'n again,
his love has conquered death's domain.

The trees in every field shall clap their hands, and say
'Come shout aloud, and help us celebrate this day!'
Jesus, the King, has burst the grave and lives once more to heal and save.

The Word, like rain or snow,
has come down from above,
and now reveals to all God's purposes of love;
the Word made flesh, once dead, now lives, new life to all he freely gives.

The myrtle for the briar,
the cypress for the thorn, shall rise to tell the world
of its awaking dawn.
Jesus, the Life, the Truth, the Way, has ushered in God's great new day.

HYMN 3

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won;
angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away, kept the folded grave-clothes where thy body lay.

*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.*

Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
let the Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for her Lord now liveth, death hath lost its sting:

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of Life;
life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife;
make us more than conquerors through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home
above:

HYMN 4

Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky;
heaven thunders forth its victor-cry:
Alleluia.

The glad earth shouts her triumph high,
and groaning hell makes wild reply:
Alleluia.

The pains of hell are loosed at last,
the days of mourning now are past;
an angel robed in light hath said,
'The Lord is risen from the dead.'

With gentle voice the angel gave the women tidings at the grave:
'Fear not, your Master shall ye see;
he goes before to Galilee.'

That Eastertide with joy was bright, the sun shone out with fairer light,
when, to their longing eyes restored,
the glad apostles saw their Lord:

Jesu, the King of gentleness, do thou thyself our hearts possess, that we may give thee all our days
the tribute of our grateful praise:

O Lord of all, with us abide in this our joyful Eastertide;
from every weapon death can wield thine own redeemed for ever shield:

All praise be thine, O risen Lord, from death to endless life restored;
all praise to God the Father be
and Holy Ghost eternally:

APCM & NEW ELECTORAL ROLL

This year's annual meeting is on Sunday 25 May after the 0930 service. This is your chance to learn more church activities and perhaps get more involved. There are vacancies for members of the Parochial Church Council and two churchwardens.

This year the church's Electoral Roll is being completely revised – everyone comes off the list and we start afresh. If St James's is your church then you should be on the list! If we have your email address, then existing members should have heard from Derek with a simple click-through process to enrol. For those without email, pick up a form and return it by Sunday 27 April.

MIDWEEK GROUPS ARE BACK

Dates for your diary: a faith course at 7:30pm on Thursdays from 1 May. Hard Questions back for topical debates, starting on Wed 7 May with How are we responding to our changing world? 2-3.20pm.

SOUND AND STREAMING DESKS

The small band of volunteers operating the Sound and Streaming desks during services would welcome some new members. Full training will be given, and it's an enjoyable experience. To see what's involved speak to a team member about shadowing a service.

JANET TAYLOR

Owing to her deteriorating health, Janet has moved to a care home in Carshalton. She would welcome visitors when she has settled in. Please speak to Susan for details.

WALK TO LUNCH

The next walk is on Saturday 10 May, when the group will be taking on a 3.5-mile route around Puttenham. If you would like to go along please let Derek know so he can book you a place for the pub lunch.

GUS FRASER TALK

We're sorry that due to circumstances beyond our control we have had to postpone An Evening with Gus until the autumn. We'll announce a new date soon and/or refund tickets already paid for.
