IBRA (International Bible Reading Association) Fresh From The Word 2024 £12.99

As ever 2024's edition connects God's word with everyday situations. Using writers from many walks of life, from across the globe geographically and across the church theologically, this daily guide connects a diverse readership to their own journey and walk with Jesus Christ. In 2024 our readings and reflections provide a framework in which we can better understand each part of the Bible. The breadth of scripture is covered in an engaging and challenging way and relevant to the world we find ourselves in. FFTW 2024 will stretch our understanding of God and inspire our faith to respond to His extraordinary love. If you would like to order a copy please contact me, June Briggs, thank you.

We have been saddened to hear of the death, earlier this month, of our former Minister at RMMC - Revd Kenneth Mankin. Please remember his family and friends in your prayers at this time.

Elizabeth, former wife of the late Revd Barnabas, sends greetings from herself and family. She is looking for a place to rent in this area. She is currently in rented accommodation in Twickenham which she will have to leave quite soon. Her son and his wife live in Eastcote, her daughter is currently staying there too. Elizabeth is working in Chiswick and her daughter works in central London. Elizabeth is asking if anyone knows of a small place to rent, preferably with two rooms, so she and her daughter can live together. Elizabeth also has a medium sized dog, so she needs access to a garden, and ideally wants to be within reach of the Piccadilly Line.

Please note: The stewards are only passing on this message and the church does not endorse any person as a tenant or otherwise. If you would like Elizabeth's contact details, please ask one of the stewards.
