Letter from the Chair

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Welcome to the Autumn Synod of the Northampton District. To those of you who are new to the Synod and to the District, we hope that you will soon feel at home in your new surroundings. My experience over the last three years has been that this is a diverse and vibrant District that offers a generous welcome and a place to flourish and grow. I want to thank those who have been members of the Synod and served the District for a long time for all that they continue to offer us, and to express our gratitude for your faithful and loving service. Those thanks are especially poignant this year as we begin to emerge from a period of lockdown and exile from our Church buildings as a result of the Covid 19 pandemic. Thank you for keeping going and carrying on in challenging circumstances. I am aware that as I write parts of our District are in an extended period of lockdown and our prayers are with them.

I am writing this letter after the Methodist Conference, which met virtually this year by zoom webinar. I am delighted to say that the Conference designated the Rev'd Sonia Hicks as the President for 2020-21. Sonia is a friend and we trained for ministry together and she will be the first black British woman to serve as President of the Conference. The Vice President designate is Barbara Easton, a member of the Connexional Team whose responsibilities are to support Methodist Schools and education. The Northampton District representatives of the District were as active as ever in the conferring and debates, despite the restrictions and limitations of meeting virtually and I was glad to see that. We are, as a District, keen to ensure the broadest representation in our Synod and to the Conference. I invite you to prayerfully consider seeking to be one of those representatives to the 2021 Conference. The 2021 Conference will meet in Birmingham and all costs of accommodation and travel are covered by the Conference. I hold a pre-Conference briefing in May particularly to help new representatives to prepare well. Please ensure that your nomination form is returned promptly to the Synod Secretary, Mr Derek Beaumont. I would ask you to hold in your prayers most particularly our 4 ordinands, the Revd Paul Carter, the Revd Calvin Cheung, the Revd Judith Lincoln and the Revd Daniel Yovan. They were received into Full Connexion with the Conference and will be ordained on Sunday 18th April 2021 in Westminster Central Hall. Please pray for them as they wait for that moment.

I offer you therefore a warm Welcome to the Autumn Synod of 2020.

Within this Synod we will not present the Conference report, "God in Love Unites us" but we do hope to offer details of the process of voting on this report as a

Synod later in the connexional year and reporting those votes to the Conference of 2021.

I look forward to our gathering as a Synod and trust that we will be richly blessed once more.

Yours in Christ,

Chair of the Northampton District of the Methodist Church

Organisation and Attendance

The principal Standing Orders governing Synod organisation can be found at SO411, 413 and 741.

All members of the Synod will receive a calling notice requesting their attendance on the days appointed for every meeting of the Synod.

Members of the Synod may bring notices of motion, which must be submitted in writing to the Chair and secretary of the Synod fourteen days before the date of the Synod, and the secretary shall see that they are printed and distributed to the members of the Synod not later than its opening. Only on matters of urgency and by express permission of the Synod may notices of motion be submitted during a session of the Synod.

Except as provided by Standing Orders 1007 (3), 806(6) and 791(5), every minister, every deacon who is not a supernumerary and every ministerial and diaconal probationer, unless, in any case, excused by dispensation of the Chair, is required to attend the Synod of which he or she is a member and to remain throughout its sessions. A dispensation of absence is to be given only upon compelling grounds. The Chair shall report all dispensations to the Synod for its approval.

Lay members unable to attend Synod are requested to send apologies for absence to the Synod Secretary and to ensure that their papers are handed to any authorised substitute appointed by the Circuit Meeting.

The Circuits shall pay the travelling expenses of their Ministerial Representatives (and of their Lay Representatives if they desire it). Travelling expenses of Supernumerary Ministers may be claimed from the District and should be notified to the Synod Secretary.
