H.M.S. HOOD

Lost in action with the Bismarck 24 May 1941 Extract taken from the Despatch of Admiral Sir John Tovey, KCB DSO Commander Home Fleet.

“HOOD and PRINCE of WALES sighted the enemy at 05.35 hrs., and came into action at 05.53 hrs., steering to close the range as fast as possible. All three ships opened fire practically simultaneously at a range of about 25,000 yards. The shooting of both HOOD and the BISMARCK was excellent from the start and both scored hits almost at once. The BISMARCK’s second or third salvo started a fire in the vicinity of the port after 4” mounting. This fire spread rapidly and at 06.00 hrs., just after the ships had turned to open A arcs, HOOD was straddled again. There was a huge explosion between the after funnel and the main mast, and the ship sank in 3 or 4 minutes. She had fired only 5 or 6 salvos. The loss, by one unlucky hit, of this famous ship with Vice-Admiral Holland, C.B., Capt. Ralph Kerr, C.B.E., and her fine crew was a very grievous blow”.

There were only 3 survivors of the entire ship’s company of 1,418.

ORDER OF SERVICE

WELCOME and INTRODUCTION

Nigel Henley ~ Rear Admiral Philip Wilcocks

OPENING HYMN

During the singing of the first hymn, a member of the City of London Sea Cadets would normally bring the Book of Remembrance solemnly to the Sanctuary and Altar in procession with the Standards.

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home.

Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
bears all its sons away,
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while life shall last,
and our eternal home.

OPENING SENTENCE and BIDDING PRAYERS

Rev. Canon Andrew Neaum

The Lord of Hosts is with us, the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God:

Almighty and most merciful Father, We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy laws, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults, Restore thou them that are penitent, According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord: And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PSALM 46

- 1 GOD is our hope and strength : a very present help in trouble.
- 2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved : and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;
- 3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell : and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.
- 4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God : the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

- 5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed :
God shall help her and that right early.
- 6 The heathen make much ado and the kingdoms are moved : but God hath shewed his voice, and the earth shall melt away.
- 7 The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.
- 8 O come hither and behold the works of the Lord : what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.
- 9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world : he breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.
- 10 Be still then and know that I am God : I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.
- 11 The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

FIRST LESSON

Ephesians 6 : 10-18

Captain Catherine Jordan

ANTHEM

Locus Iste - Anton Bruckner

Sung by the choir of St. John the Baptist, Boldre

Locus iste a Deo factus est, inaestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est.

This place was made by God, a priceless mystery;
it is without reproof.

SECOND LESSON

Matthew 5 : 1-12

Jane Hay

HYMN

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep.
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Saviour, whose Almighty word, the winds and waves submissive heard,
who walkedst on the foaming deep,
and calm amid its rage didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O sacred Spirit, who didst brood upon the chaos dark and rude,
Who bad'st its angry tumult cease, and gavest light and life and peace
O hear us when we cry to thee
for those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and power,
our brethren shield in danger's hour:
from rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them whereso'er they go:
and ever let there rise to thee glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

SERMON

Ven. Martyn Gough

HYMN

The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at thy behest;
To thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

We thank thee that thy Church unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord; thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all thy creatures own thy sway.

THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

Rear Admiral Philip Wilcocks

A Commemoration of Vice Admiral Lancelot Holland C.B. and of the 1,415 officers and men who lost their lives in HMS HOOD in action with the enemy in the North Atlantic on 24 May 1941.

We are met together to commemorate and to commend to the love of God all those who died in His Majesty's Ship HOOD: to give thanks for their lives and their example, to pray that we may be worthy of their sacrifice, and that there may never be wanting in this realm a like succession of people of spirit, humble and unafraid.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

Let us remember before God, and commend to his sure safekeeping, those who have died for their country in war; especially we remember those who served in HMS Hood and gave their lives in the service of their country. We remember with thanksgiving all who laid down their lives in the two World Wars, and those who have served in more recent and current conflicts. We pray for all whom we knew, or whose memory we treasure, and all who have died in the cause of peace and the service of mankind. Amen.

SILENCE

THE REVEILLE

THE LAYING OF WREATH

Titch Blachford

When you go home
Tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow
We gave our today.

NAVAL PRAYER

Commander Mark Hamilton

Eternal Lord God, who alone spreadest out the heavens and rulest the raging of the sea; who hast compassed the waters with bounds until day and night come to an end; Be pleased to receive into thy Almighty and most gracious protection the persons of us thy servants, and the Fleet in which we serve. Preserve us from the dangers of the sea and air, and from the violence of the enemy, that we may be a safeguard unto our most gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Elizabeth, and her Dominions, and a security for such as pass on the sea upon their lawful occasions: that the inhabitants of our island and Commonwealth may in peace and quietness serve Thee our God: and that we may return in safety to enjoy the blessings of the land, with the fruits of our labours and with a thankful remembrance of thy mercies to praise and glorify thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rev. Canon Andrew Neaum

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord: He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

O God our Father, the Creator and Giver of life now and in the world to come; we praise and thank you for your servants who counted their lives not dear to themselves, but laid them down for their friends. We beseech you to remember for good their loyal service and their faithfulness to death, and to fulfil in them the loving purpose of your perfect will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God our Father, we pray for all who serve our country within the armed forces. Grant that meeting danger with courage, and all occasions with discipline and loyalty, they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace, to the honour of your name. Amen.

Almighty God, direct the hearts and minds of those who bear in their hands the government of the people of our nation. Make them to uphold honour and justice, to restrain evil and oppression, and to seek the true prosperity of our nation and the welfare of humankind. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

HYMN

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty, hold me with thy powerful hand:
bread of heaven,
feed me till I want no more.

Open thou the crystal fountain whence the healing stream doth flow; let the fiery, cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through:
strong deliverer,
be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction,
land me safe on Canaan's side:
songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

THE BLESSING

Rev. Canon Andrew Neaum

God grant to the living, grace; to the departed, rest; to the Church, the Queen, the Commonwealth, and to all mankind, peace and concord; and to us and all his servants, life everlasting; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be with you and abide with you always. Amen.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

God save our gracious Queen,	Thy choicest gifts in store
Long live our noble Queen,	On her be pleased to pour
God save the Queen.	Long may she reign.
Send her victorious,	May she defend our laws,
happy and glorious,	And ever give us cause
long to reign over us	To sing with heart and voice,
God save the Queen.	God save the Queen.
