Collect and Post-Communion prayer for the 11th Sunday after Trinity

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

There are two more Music at Boldre 2024 concerts. On the 7th September, we have a concert which features our own church and local choirs, plus much more to entertain. On 28th September, we have an Organ Recital by our resident Organist, Timothy Rice, who promises a varied diet of music for organ ... plus some other offerings which were never meant for organ - but it's amazing what the King of Instruments can do! And ... there'll be possibly more than one of our FIVE organs for you to listen to. We very much look forward to seeing you at both events - which start at 4pm.

St Mary's seeks people to serve tea and coffee on the 3rd and 4th Sundays in the month. If nobody volunteers we may not be able to continue to offer refreshments after services. Please speak to Nick or Pat ASAP if you can help, even once every 2 months.

Quiet Afternoon for the Benefice: Sunday 27th October at Walhampton School, 2pm – 5pm

“This is very much for us, by us, about us – to give thanks for our congregations’ life; to seek a deeper understanding of our diverse strengths and opportunities; to discuss how we might make the best of our opportunities, together and separately. As we all prepare for this, please ask God to give each one of us insight into how the Spirit is working in our own parishes, and how you are being moved to pray and act. We will collect people’s thoughts on our altars through September and October, and then ask the Standing Committee to see what directions/topics/questions are uppermost in people’s minds, so that on the day, we can pray about what is emerging, and share insights, suggestions, offers.” Nicholas Walford

ENVOI

Palestinian Anglican priest Naim Ateek emphasizes Jesus' call to community and peacemaking:

Jesus called into community a small group of people. They were his disciples and friends. He taught them the essence of faith—the love of God and the love of neighbor—and he became a role model to them. When they asked him to teach them to pray, he taught them to pray for the coming of God's kingdom: "Your kingdom come, your will be done." If you want to be children of God, he said, you need to be engaged in peacemaking; if you want to imitate God and be God's children, you have to love your enemies and to pray for those that persecute you. If you want to resist evil, do not use evil methods. You have to practice forgiveness and reconciliation. You must be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

"Faithfulness to Christ, Resistance to Empire," in Challenging Empire: God, Faithfulness and Resistance, ed. Naim Ateek, Cedar Duaybis and Maurine Tobin (Jerusalem: Sabeel Ecumenical Liberation Theology Center, 2012).
