

Keswick in Cambusbarron!

For 140 years, Christian people have flocked to the Lake District for the Keswick Convention. The event provides Bible teaching for all ages, vibrant worship, a sense of unity across generations and denominations, and an inspirational call to serve Christ in the world.

This year, you can get a taste of Keswick in Cambusbarron!

From 22nd to 26th July, we will livestream the morning Bible readings at 11.15am and the evening celebrations at 7.30pm from 21st July in Cambusbarron Church Hall – with tea, coffee and biscuits available.

Each morning, Vaughan Roberts will speak from the Song of Songs. The evening celebrations will focus on 1 Peter and the speakers will include Duncan Forbes, Martin Salter, Pete Nicholas and Jonathan Lamb. The praise will be led by EMU Music.
