

The earth has its kings, but God is enthroned and ruler of all.
Praise God above all, the giver of life!
The nations may tremble, the earth may shake,
but God's presence is more powerful than the earth itself.
Come into God's presence, for God is among us now.
O God, show us your glory; we seek your ways.
Come to the Rock, the God of life,
for God is present now.

Opening Prayer
Loving, living God,
it is your Presence we seek,
be among us now,
aware that you know us by name.
Show us your ways.
Guide our steps.
Live in us,
that we may be people of faith, love and hope.
Open our ears to hear your words, challenging us to give back to you all the things that are yours.
Help us remember that all we are and all we have
are gifts from you,
gifts to be shared in service and love.
Holy One among us,
help us be a holy people
who receive your word with power and deep conviction and live your message with love. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and intercession
Jesus said: 'Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and give to God the things that are God's.'

Lord Jesus, reveal to us Your Father, make our hearts like Your's, recognising that all we have and all we are has come from Your Father, Our Father,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name,
Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.
Amen

We pray for those authorities who You have entrusted power and responsibility.
In our own country, Members of Parliament, for Scott Mann, those in opposition, our Prime Minister and the leaders of all parties.

Grant them, in the present challenges of Covid 19, lockdowns, and Brexit, and at all times, wisdom, insight, patience, dedication, integrity, open-mindedness, and humility, that each may be equipped to serve the trust placed in them.

For local government, taking decisions influencing local lives, wrestling with limited resources and numerous demands.

For other countries, super-powers and small states, shaping the lives of millions or relatively few. Grant them the guidance and gifts they need to govern wisely and promote justice.

For those people affected by an abuse of power, divided, oppressed, in prison, exploited and suppressed; bring Your love, hope, truth, strength, justice and freedom.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,
Hear our prayer

Strengthen the leaders of Your church, those guiding, teaching, preaching and serving Your children, Your people here in Your cluster. Grant Your wisdom and understanding to the transition team and parish representatives as they humbly seek Your way forward.

For Joe Lannon, Nikki and Kenzie, we give you grateful thanks and praise lifting them before you asking for your wisdom and guidance to be poured out in abundance to overflowing as they seek your will for these coming times of change for them and us, feeling with their pain at leaving their present community and congregation, that we, moving with them, embrace change, are ready to serve You wherever we may end up.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,
Hear our prayer

For our homes and families, our schools, teachers, children and young people, those at college and university, those at the Duchy College, Callington College and Local Primary schools, we pray for health and safety. For their mental well-being that their 'bubbles' may be a community of mutual support.

For companies and employees uncertain about their future as the furlough scheme comes to a close and difficult decisions are made.

We pray for all those who stumble with the burden of personal debt: for those too frightened to face the problem, for couples who cannot talk about it, for children who cannot understand but live with the worry. We pray especially for those we know and love who are struggling. For Food Banks and other agencies working to bringing relief.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,
Hear our prayer.

With you and in Your strength, we bring to mind, we bring to you, we lift those who suffer, for those grieving the loss of loved ones, those exhausted, sharing and caring, suffering and serving their loved ones, and for children who are abused by those they should be able to trust.

We bring before you now those for whom our prayers have been asked ... , that they may be touched by your healing love.

Silence

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

Knowing you are hearing us better than we are speaking, we offer these prayers.

Amen

Collect

Faithful Lord, whose steadfast love never ceases and whose mercies never come to an end: grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love, new every morning, in Jesus Christ our Lord.

God of Goodness and Mercy,

We thank You for Your constancy.

Give us the grace to remain rooted in Your Love right where we are.

we thank You that You have redeemed us, included us in Your family, and welcomed us with open arms of forgiveness and compassion.

We offer You our lives to use for Your Sovereign purposes as You see fit

May pleasing You be our greatest joy and may we always remember it is our deepest privilege. Amen
