The Craftsman Day at Beighton Church

ACLE & BURE TO YARE BENEFICE

Parishes of Reedham, Freethorpe, Wickhampton, Cantley, Limpenhoe with Southwood & Halvergate with Tunstall together with Acle & Beighton with Moulton

From the (Reedham) Rectory.

As I write this article on 16th June we are beginning a weekend which is all about people coming together and being with one another. It is one year since the young MP Jo Cox was brutally murdered and all across the country more than 108,000 'get togethers' are being held to celebrate her life and work. The message of these events is togetherness because togetherness is what she promoted throughout her own short life. There will be street parties and barbecues, food festivals and football matches. Many of those involved in the Passion Play in Reedham, having already planned a post play get together, will make it an event that celebrates Jo Cox too. We will have the red gingham tablecloths and red balloons needed to show we are celebrating her life and what she stood for.

When she was alive Jo Cox represented a really diverse community in Batley and Spen. Her now famous words were: 'we are far more united and have far more in common than that which divides us'.

What I find so hopeful about the get-together idea is that it seems to me that people are beginning to see the value of being together and spending time with others. There appears to be more friendliness about in our country. It might be because we are all facing difficult times. There is a great deal of uncertainty and we are coping with terrorist attacks in Manchester and London and now the terrible high rise fire in west London. It is often in adversity that people do find strength in coming together and standing together, working for and helping each other.

Yesterday, on our way to London on a very busy, hot train, we were suddenly told at Colchester Station that because of a problem in Romford, we had to leave the train and catch another train to London that was coming along later. I think there were several hundred of us on the train and we all gathered on the platform at Colchester. Some of the passengers were going to miss important connections, interviews or family events, but everyone was good natured and we all shared our stories. When the next train arrived it was already completely full but somehow we all squeezed in, hot and sweaty but cheerful. I think it was because we were facing something together and supporting one another even though we were all strangers, that we were able to cope with the disruption without getting too stressed.

Working together and supporting one another is important within any community and I know that in our villages there are many groups of friends and neighbours who do care for and support one another. In the Church, here in Reedham, we do our best to work together and support each other too. There are not so many of us who gather each Sunday to worship and pray together, but we are faithful and hopeful and want our Church to be around for many years to come. We are a very diverse group too but, because of our shared faith we know that we have something in common which transcends everything else and that is our belief in Jesus Christ.

Jesus always worked and prayed with others and valued his friends. He knew how important it was for people to come together. We should all look out for others and work together, now more than ever.

God bless

Lorna

Murder in the Parish Church

Many British cathedrals contained the shrine of a saint: St. Edmundsbury is obvious; Durham has Cuthbert; Westminster Abbey, Edward the Confessor. For Canterbury it is Thomas Beckett, the Archbishop who was killed there by four knights a few days after Christmas, 1170. He had been Henry II's Chancellor, but resigned that position and clashed with the King when he was made Archbishop of Canterbury. He fled the country, but was murdered at the altar of his cathedral when he returned from exile.

I grew up in the Diocese of Canterbury, so the story how this "turbulent priest" met his end was familiar, even before I studied and saw T.S. Eliot's play on the subject. But Thomas was a popular saint in the Middle Ages throughout the country; locally, his martyrdom is depicted in a wall painting at South Burlingham. He also appears on the screen at North Burlingham, but defaced: during the Reformation Henry VIII marked him out for special obliteration because he represented the resistance of the Church to the power of monarchy.

Eliot's play Murder in the Cathedral is written in his thought-provoking poetry: sometimes beautiful, sometimes disturbing – like life and nature. It explores Beckett's motivation, draws meaning from the season of Christmas and presents Eliot's thoughts on activity and passivity and the nature of sainthood.

We are blessed to be staging a performance of the play in Beighton Church on Saturday 8th July (3.30pm) – in support of that church's Rethatching & Improvements Project. The church doesn't contain an image of Thomas; but it is dedicated to All Saints. Six gothic-revival windows in the chancel depict the Twelve Apostles, glowing jewel-like (as Simon Knott says on his Norfolk Churches website) as the light passes through them. The true martyr, says Thomas in the play, is he who has become the instrument of God, who has lost his will in the will of God, and who no longer desires anything for himself ... in Heaven the Saints ... are seen, not as we see them, but in the light of the Godhead from which they draw their being.

May we be equally – and as beautifully – transparent to the love of God shining through us.

Wickhampton Garage Sale

Thank you to the residents of Wickhampton who joined in the recent successful Garage Sale and to all of the people who came to the village to join in. Thanks also to the ladies who once again spent the day at the church providing teas, coffees and snacks! Including the raffle, the event raised a total of £247.25 for Wickhampton Church.

Wickhampton Garage/Garden Sale

St Andrew's was once again buzzing with activity during the recent garage/garden open day sale held in the village of Wickhampton. Maureen Hewitt and her team of helpers including Jackie and Jean served teas, coffees and light refreshments throughout the morning and visitors once again shared time together perusing the stalls. Total funds raised amounted to £149.75 towards church funds and £51 to the Cancer Community Chest in Brundall where Maureen is a volunteer. Thanks extended to all the fundraising team and to all who continually support our events.

We are planning a Teddy Bear Fun Day with Ploughman's Lunches and teas during Open Churches Week in August.

Brenda Pawsey.

Reedham Parish Council - Meeting held on Monday 5th June 2017 at Reedham Village Hall

There were 7 Councillors present and the Clerk. Also present was Mr Bradbury from the Village Hall Committee, District Councillor Grant Nurden and County Councillor Brian Iles. 5 members of the public were in attendance. The Council meeting commenced at 7.30 pm

The Council is to request Mill Road be included in the winter gritting instead of Ferry Road as it was considered a more vital route.

The Council will not be removing the glass recycling bottle banks as they can still claim recycling credits. Please use the bottle banks as they generate funds for the Parish Council to be used for local services.

County Councillor Iles reported on the new structure for Norfolk County Council. He has been appointed vice-chair to the Business and Property committee which will look after all the Council's property. Funds have been allocated for an engineering survey of the works needed on the Acle Straight. The survey will take 12 to 18 months but work is unlikely to begin before 2020. However improvements will only be to either end and the Halvergate junction.

The Chairman of the Village Hall Committee Chris Bradbury gave the following report:

There were no issues with the play equipment, although the suspension bridge will need replacing soon. There has been an increase in the number of people exercising their dogs, and occasionally their horses, on the playing field. Children have also been climbing on the bottle banks and smashing the bottles. Cans have also been taken from the can bank and thrown on the field and tennis courts. The grey wheelie bin used to aid this has now been chained to the building. Fund raising: the cash bingo jackpot stands at £180 in 48 numbers or less. A Race Night in May raised £144 which has gone to the light and sound fund. The Quiz in June will be on the 22nd at 7.30 pm. The Village Fete is on the 16th July.

The closure of the permissive path was again discussed. The draft agreement has been amended to simplify the uplift calculation. The Council is now waiting for the Chairman and Mr Mutton to sign the agreement. Once that has happened the designs for the bridge can start.

It was reported to the Council that the gate to the Wherryman's Way from the Ferry Inn to Britt House has been tied up with string on a number of occasions. The Council had already been made aware of this and the person responsible has been informed it is illegal and not acceptable.

Mr Richard Holt has been co-opted to the Parish Council to replace Mr Keith Patterson who moved out of the village.

The Council will not be requesting street lighting on the new development at Station Road.

Meeting held 8th May – this was not received in time for June magazine. Apart from on-going issues reported above, David Hale and Chris Ward were re-elected as Chair and Vice-chair. A planning application for 2 houses opposite Cornfield Bungalow on Station Road was considered and was passed with only 1 objection.

The Council will now receive all planning applications electronically and a link will be put on the website for ease of viewing.

With regard to the Permissive Path, the Council also agreed to fund the cost of a new fence for the path and the cost of dredging the dyke to level the path's surface. Various grants are being investigated to help with the costs.

There is a pile of garden manure at the allotments and residents are invited to help themselves. There is also a ½ plot available at the allotments. Please contact Paul Bilverstone or the Clerk for further details.

Freethorpe Flower Show 2017

Our annual show will be held this year on Saturday 26th August at 2.30 p.m. in Freethorpe Village Hall. As we did last year we have opened this show to residents of surrounding villages. For those living outside Freethorpe, Wickhampton and Limpenhoe a copy of the schedule is available either from Freethorpe Post Office Stores or by contacting Corinne Hill tel: 01493 700965.

Classes range from cookery, handicraft, photography, fruit, vegetables and flowers. There are also classes for Children. We have a set knitting pattern for a boy's sweater and it is hoped that entries in this class will be donated so that they can be sent to Knitting for Peace, a charity that sends to refugees. If you wish to knit a sweater but not enter the class we will gratefully accept your contribution.

We look forward to seeing you on Show Day and we welcome your support.

Show Secretary

Reedham Yard Sale

Reedham village is organising a yard sale for Sunday 30th July. The idea is all participants pay £5 and are then entered onto the maps which are then sold for £1. On the day villagers and visitors buy the map and using this look around the village at the various yard sales and hopefully purchase things you have for sale. The £5 paid to enter and the money for the maps will go to Reedham Primary school. If you are interested please give Lisa a ring on 01493 701052. Maps can be purchased on the day from Reedham Post Office. Cut off day for registering is 25th July.

Fair Trade Communion Wine

The Communion wine used at some of our churches (including Acle and Reedham) is produced at Stella Organic Fair Trade winery in South Africa. Stellar's aim is to make a significant difference not only to the lives of their 350 workers, but to the part of South Africa in which they are situated. For example, workers and their families receive free basic healthcare from a mobile registered nursing sister. Schooling, training and sports facilities have been provided. In one location a Community Garden has been established beginning with two unemployed persons from the informal settlement. With the help of the Department of Agriculture this project was expanded to 22 participants. Vegetable gardening has since been quite 'infectious' in the community and the original participants helped neighbours, family and friends establish their own gardens.

Reedham Village Show – Sunday 30th August 2017

As you will receive the Schedule for the show with your Outlook, please consider entering something this year. It has been continuing since 1944 and it is well worth entering something this year. Things do not have to be perfect to make a good show. As you will see there are many different classes including flowers, pot plants, fruit, vegetables, craft, cookery and photography. The neo-natal unit at the Hospital are always very grateful for hats and we can all make a few, not all to be entered in the class. This year there also be an exhibition by a local Art Group. It is amazing the talents of so many people.

Reedham Gardening Club

With the warm sunshine our flowers in pots and baskets need watering every day and feeding once a week. Remember not to cut hedges until August, as birds are still nesting.

As we are enjoying our vegetables it is worth sowing a few lettuce or salad leaves every few days. These can then be pot grown and brought onto the kitchen windowsill to give an instant supply.

The Village Walk Saturday 17th June

A huge thank you to everyone who came on the second Village Walk showing support for the reopening of the permissive footpath.

After refreshments sixty of us walked from the Humpty Dumpty Brewery to The Reedham Ferry where we were able to buy barbecued food. There were several stalls there selling books, cakes and bric a brac and from those sales we raised £177.15.

Special thanks to the teams at the Humpty Dumpty Brewery and at the Reedham Ferry Inn who worked really hard to make the event successful.

A new agreement has been signed between the landowner and our Parish Council and so we hope that the footpath will be reinstated asap.

Finally, thank you to David Hale, Chris Ward and all members of Reedham Parish Council who have been working along with other organisations to make this possible.

Pat Bagshaw

Coffee Morning at Reedham

The Mothers' Union is pleased to host a Coffee Morning on Saturday July 15th on behalf of Pat Atkinson and her work with The Vidyall Trust.

This will be from 11am. until 1pm and we hope to make her welcome and learn how the work is progressing. She is anxious to let us know that it is not about the money, but rather to inform us so that we can pray. Nevertheless, we will sell Teas, coffees and cakes along with a Bric a Brac Stall and any donations you might want to give. However there is no need, so come along and enjoy our get together on the day. You are most welcome
