From the (Acle) Rectory,

One of my favourite hymns at this time of year is Hail to the Lord's Anointed. It's a version of Psalm 72 (Give the king your judgements, O God) which is a prayer for Israel's king – possibly a coronation psalm, expressing the hopes for the new reign. These hopes were not always borne out in practice – with a definite theological agenda, the books of I and II Kings categorise the rulers of Israel and Judah according to whether they did right or wrong in the eyes of the Lord. Psalm 72 can be linked with passages in the prophets expressing the promise of a righteous king (the Wonderful Counsellor of Isaiah 9; the rod from the stem of Jesse of Isaiah 11, the ruler from Bethlehem of Micah 5) hopefully still familiar to us from Carol Services, particularly King's College Cambridge. The figure they foretold came to be seen as the Messiah, fulfilled for Christians in Jesus.

So we can sing Hail to the Lord's Anointed in Advent; and we can sing it again at Epiphany (which we will keep this year on 7th January) because of its verses about Arabia's desert ranger and the Ethiopian stranger bowing down and bringing gifts of gold and incense – acknowledging his far-reaching authority, as did the Magi.

But of what relevance is this to us once the Christmas decorations have come down, work has resumed and we are again facing the cold reality of another January? The first bidding of Psalm 72 is that the king will rule with the judgements (or justice) of God. That means, from the outset, ruling in equity: demonstrating a concern for the poor and oppressed, who don't have the power to get fair and compassionate treatment for themselves – an undeniable aspect of God's justice which is non-negotiable for a godly ruler. Only then does the psalm go on to look for peace, prosperity and advantage over surrounding nations.

Justice for the disadvantaged is something we should continue to ask for (in our prayers) and from all earthly rulers. At this time we might think particularly about our County Council, determining how to make large budget cuts. Proposals affect things of local interest like Children's Centres, subsidised bus routes and winter gritting – although which Centres, buses or roads hasn't been determined – the public consultation (closes 2 Jan) is just on the principles. I have some sympathy for the Council: they will get the headache and blame for cuts which really originate with the Government. But the main concern should be with those affected – particularly if they are those in our society least able to look after themselves. If the judgements of God are applied they shouldn't be.

In the love and wisdom of God,

Martin Greenland

Answer to last month's Pathfinder Puzzle

See amid the winter's snow,	Sacred Infant, all divine,
Born for us on earth below;	What a tender love was Thine,
See the tender lamb appears,	Thus to come from highest bliss
Promised from eternal years;	Down to such a world as this.
Hail, thou ever blessed morn;
Hail, redemption's happy dawn;
Sing through all Jerusalem,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

We will also be combining with Lantern to cover the Acle and Beighton area. Reedham parish will continue to receive it free, as the Parish council, the Community Association and various other bodies and individuals make a generous donations, but the price per copy will be going up to 25p for those from other parishes – this will actually be a reduction for those who took the Lantern. We will also be accepting regular advertisements – if you are interested, please contact George Nicholls ageorgen10@gmail.com for terms and conditions. We will continue to act as a community newsletter for the Reedham and District area, and also as a Church Magazine for the whole Benefice area. We hope you will like it.

Reedham Station

We are sure that all of you that use the railway station will have appreciated the beautifully landscaped area in the car park approach together with the garden by the footbridge. This is the work of Colin, one of the station adopters and we are delighted to say that he has achieved the Best Personal Contribution award in the Greater Anglia region. Many congratulations to him.

The winter timetable is now in operation and copies can be had at the railway station or the Post Office.

Our thanks go to Ferryfest who raised more than £5,000 for good causes and have made a very generous contribution to the station upkeep fund. Thanks again.

The latest footfall figures have now been published and Reedham has shown a steady increase with more than 50,000 passengers for the last 12 months. This is greater than Acle or Lingwood both of which have much a larger population.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to everyone.

Reedham Station Adopters

Reedham Parish Council – Monday 4th December

There were 9 Councillors present, the Clerk, County Councillor Brian Iles, District Councillor Grant Nurden and Chris Bradbury Chairman of the Village Hall. 7 members of the public were in attendance. Apologies were received from Councillor Thompson. The Council meeting commenced at 7.30 pm

Norfolk County Council are consulting on the next budget allocation. County Councillor Iles urged residents to respond to the consultation in order that local priorities can be taken into account.

County Councillor Iles also confirmed he has authorised the release of £2,000 from his budget to go towards the reopening of the Permissive Path. He has resigned from the Broads Authority due to excessive paperwork.

Broadland District Council is embarking on a feasibility study for a joint working structure with South Norfolk District Council. A Time and Task Panel has been set up to look at how to promote Neighbourhood Planning. The budget conclusion will probably result in a £5 per Band D house increase for 2018/19.

The Chairman of the Village Hall Committee Chris Bradbury provided the following report: the cash bingo jackpot stands at £240 in 54 numbers or less. The Christmas Fayre was well supported, the Grand Raffle made over £300. Thanks were expressed to everyone who helped and who donated a prize. A 50/50 auction is planned for the end of January 2018.

There will be a third Village Walk to raise funds for the Permissive Path on Wednesday 27th December from the Ship at 11 am.

2 planning applications were considered. A holding objection was requested on the single storey side and rear extension at Carr Barn, Low Farm Loke until an inspection could be done on whether there is a bat roost in the building. Concerns regarding light pollution, access to the flood wall, and site access times were raised for the revised plans at Broadland Hoarding Solutions, 19 Station Road.

There are several vacant plots on the allotments. Anyone interested please contact the Clerk 01493 750254. Allotment rents are due for the year. Please send to the Clerk at 31 Mill Lane, Acle, NR13 3BJ.

Work on dredging the dyke and levelling the Permissive Footpath should start in early December following the removal of the fence.

Volunteers of Council members and other residents of Reedham undertake regular litter picking around the village. If you would like to help out please contact the Clerk. Bags and equipment can be provided.

Mrs M Blanche who looks after the flower tubs on riverside and Mrs Greenwood who looked after the war memorial were all thanked for their time.

The Council agreed to contribute an annual amount to the Outlook magazine.

There is a vacant position of Councillor on the Council. Further details can be obtained from the Clerk.

The Parish Council agreed to maintain the precept at the current rate.

Time and Date of Next Meeting.

Monday 8th January 2018 at 7.30pm in the Village Hall.

Reedham Gardening Club

We wish all our readers a Happy and Fruitful New Year. As we appreciate the flowers in our gardens, it is worth thinking of shrubs that provide berries all through the Winter. Skimmia, cotoneaster, pyracantha, viburnum and hollies all make a splash of colour and food for the birds. We all enjoy spring bulbs but winter jasmine, viburnum and evergreen honeysuckle all provide food for bees when the sun shines.

Even with the cold weather, vegetables such as leeks and brassicas are very valuable crops before we start preparations for the spring.

Stamps

Please note that Lyndsay Fisher no longer collects stamps for charity, so please do not leave them with her. The box in Reedham church is for Multiple Sclerosis, and they are collected by Barbara Tuck. Once more can we appeal for the stamps to be prepared neatly – just tearing them off the envelopes then means hours of work for someone. Also, damaged stamps are useless and have to be thrown away.

Reedham Charities of the Month

Up to now, Reedham Church has put out a collecting bowl at each service for a different Charity each month. The PCC has decided that for this coming year we will have an Annual Charity – Sunshine Educare - as well as 4 'monthly' charities – The Fishermen's Mission, the Diocesan Lent Project (Simbai, Papua New Guinea), Caroline House and the Diocesan Play Van.

Sunshine is an Education and Health project in a very deprived part of South Africa, providing a school, pre-school and health care to those who 'do not live, merely survive.' We are supporting Educare because Ellie Mules, from Limpenhoe, has been helping with this South African project, and her mother, Sara Mules, is now also involved. Sara will be giving a talk about the project on at the Reedham service on 25th February. The Sunshine Educare will then be 'Charity of the Month' for the other 8 months, and there may be other fund raising events in connection with it.

Reedham and District Poppy Appeal

The 2016/17 appeal closed on 30th September with a final figure of £3,108.50, this again being an increase on the previous year's total. To date the 2017/18 appeal has raised an impressive £2,847.82 which is far ahead of last year's amount to the same date. May I take this opportunity to say a big thank you to all who made this possible; your support is always appreciated.

After 10 years I am making this my final year with the Poppy Appeal; if anyone is interested in taking on the role of Poppy Appeal Organiser please get in touch with me on 01493 701411.
