From the (Acle) Rectory

This issue of Outlook initiates some changes. We welcome new readers in Acle, Beighton and Moulton St. Mary, as we now cover the benefice with a single magazine. Established readers will notice that it's now possible to advertise in Outlook: that is helping to fund the more striking change to a cover printed in colour!

Colour speaks to us of the diversity and richness of the world. On a grey winter's day splashes of colour, such as the yellow of hazel catkins or winter jasmine, lift our spirits and are a foretaste of life to come. Worship in our grey church buildings is enhanced by occasional stained glass, flower arrangements and liturgical colours. There's a painting reproduced in Acle Church guidebook depicting the medieval font when it was repainted in the 18th century in vibrant hues. This paint was later removed (conservation principles change) – but it's a reminder that medieval churches were much more colourful places than we tend to think, or than they are today.

Perhaps our medieval forebears had something there. God has created a world in colour. In this season of Epiphany we celebrate the transformation of that world through the revelation of God's glory in Jesus Christ. His ministry enriched lives that were previously drab. In Mark's Gospel Jesus restores sight to a blind man at Bethsaida; it's a two-stage process: after Jesus' first administration the man says, "I see people – they look like trees, but they are walking about." It takes a second administration to bring full definition to his sight. Experiencing a shift from black and white to colour could stand alongside biblical metaphors such as the deaf hearing, the lame leaping and water turned to wine.

We simplify things in order to represent them. A pencil sketch can be useful. Black and white footage was once all that the technology allowed. Even a colour photograph is a 2-dimensional representation of a 3- or 4-dimensional reality (if you include time) – one day Outlook might be 3-d! But sometimes that simplification doesn't do justice. When we "see things in black and white," we squeeze out colour, are blind to subtleties. Moreover, not all people see colours the same; and bees and birds see the same world in an enhanced way, with ultra-violet sensitivity.

I'm sure heaven is a colourful place. In Revelation's vision of the New Jerusalem, the jasper walls of the golden city are built on foundations of twelve varieties of precious stone. Before then, let's appreciate the full colour of life on earth, and enable those whose lives are monochrome to share in it.

In the love of God,

Martin Greenland

Visitors

During March we will welcome two special guests to help us mark Lent. The second (Wednesday 21st March) will be the Bishop of Norwich. Bishop Graham who will talk about Finding God in Sacred and Surprising Places. He will be referring to his a new Lent book out this year: A Place for God.

That connects with our first guest, on Tuesday 6th March (7.30pm at Acle Methodist Church) who is the Revd Briant Smith, Chaplain to the Broads. He will be speaking about The Spirit of the Broads – something we should be well-placed to consider!

Reedham Christmas Charities

I was amazed when I did a summary of what was raised at various events held in the village during December not only for village groups but also charities, the grand total was £1,866.28p, a further £22 more than was known to me in a previous report given. We are a small village but support given at events is very pleasing and shows a caring community, well done to all.

Charities that benefitted were, St Martin's Housing Trust £99.28p, East Anglian Children's Hospice £147, Save the Children £36 and St Faith's Animal Rescue £165, the remainder went to the School and Village Hall events that were held.

Please continue to supply me with information of What's on, Where, When and Results of to enable me to keep Reedham village news in the Great Yarmouth Mercury weekly. I have kept scrap books of village news since I began in 1983. Anyone wishing to look through them contact me at 12, Station Road.

Snow, Icicles and Sparkle (See picture on back cover!)

It didn't Snow but it definitely Sparkled, in more ways than one !!!!.....it was a cold crisp sunny morning but the Icicles were out as the festive Church coffee morning began !!!..... craft stalls, jewellery, jams and pickles, cakes, cards, fruit and veg. and a wonderful array of gifts on the Raffle !!!!

Guess the weight of the wonderful Penguin cake made by Kelda was won by Bill Lacey and was 3lb and 1oz.

The most amazing aroma was coming from the kitchen where mulled wine was flowing festively....and hot mince pies were being served...

The atmosphere was magical, the room decorated in silver and white tinsel and baubles, Christmas carols were sung by members of the Benefice choir which sounded incredible putting us in the festive spirit, an abundance of welcome, happy customers what more could be ask for !!!!.....except an amazing amount of £521.31 towards St. Edmunds Church !!!

Thank you very much to all who helped, served, supplied and of course attended. I hope you had a wonderful 'Sparkly' Christmas !!!!.....

Helen S. Greenland

The Village Walk 27th December 2017

A huge thank you to everyone who took part in the third Village Walk showing continued support for the reopening of the permissive footpath.

Unfortunately the weather wasn't so kind to us this time .....to say the least!!!

However, 25 villagers were blown by the wind and rain around the village testing out their waterproofs.....

Thank you to our wonderful hosts at The Ship for warming us up with coffee beforehand and some delicious soup with warm baguettes on our return.

The tombola and "guess the date when the footpath will reopen" game raised around £25 although we still have some tickets to sell and some prizes to win so we will let everyone know the final amount in due course.

The latest update about the path was told to the walkers by our Parish Council Chairman, Chris Ward.

Negotiations between the landowner and the Parish Council continue.

Estimates are currently being sought for the work to re-establish the paths structures.

So far the vegetation has been cut back and the dyke dredged. The foundations for the new path have been levelled.

Limpenhoe Carol Service (See picture on back cover!)

The Limpenhoe Carol Service was held on Sunday 17 December and despite some sickness that prompted some last minute cast changes the children's nativity went ahead without a hitch. Even Spice, our dedicated donkey, fresh from his appearance at Norwich Cathedral, was almost perfect but still needed a firm hand from the stage manager!

Musically, the village was on fine fettle with a rock/pop guitar solo performed by Heavenli Hewitt and a beautiful duet version of O Holy Night from Nichola Wright and Ellie Mules.

The Children's Poem spoken by various readers including a six year old Erin Wright and the children's singing of Away in A Manager were particularly moving.

Our small, but perfectly formed, choir imported from 'The Wild West' led the singing of seven carols including a calypso version of 'Mary's Boy Child' and entertained the congregation with a version of The Cowboy Carol.

After the service, we retired to Limpenhoe Village Hall for a well-earned glass of mulled wine, sausage rolls and mince pies.

Special thanks to everyone who contributed and those who turned up to support Limpenhoe Church.

Simon Ash

REEDHAM OVER FIFTIES CLUB

Happy New Year to all our members.

Since the last report we have had our Xmas lunch at Acle Bridge and are now looking forward to up and coming events in 2018.

The bingo lottery has still at the time of this report not been won and has been running for 10 weeks, the jackpot will be over £400, so some lucky person is in for a good start to the new year. This is not just for club members please ring me if you wish to join - 07585504199.

Our club is open to all villages and is growing, do come along, don't be shy. We have a quiz after our cuppa break and that usually causes a lot of laughter!! That is what we are about, feeling at ease with friends for the afternoon and laughter.

We will be having a coach trip in the summer months which will be paid for by the club. Those not able to go on a coach will be enjoying and fish & chip lunch.

I am running a coach to Thursford afternoon show on November 12th. As it is difficult to get group bookings I need to let the coach company know a.s.a.p. how many I have. The cost will be £49.50. This is open to other clubs in the village as well, just ring me. Tickets are going fast.

Our first meeting went well last week when we re-opened after our Xmas break. We gained some new members and Linda made cakes for everyone and I took along the sausage rolls. Club members were told that we continue to grow and that the committee had some new ideas for this year. If we continue to increase our membership it could enable us to do perhaps two coach trips in the summer, but we have to see how it goes.

We have a new member on the Committee. Wendy Brister who has replaced Audrey Harris. Audrey had served many years, and we thank her for all she did for the club.

Well as the saying goes onwards and upwards; we are looking forward to 2018, and gaining not just new members but new friends!!

Angie, Treasurer/Secretary

Women's Night Out

All ladies are invited to W.N.O on Wednesday February 7th at 7:30pm in the Bowls Pavilion at Freethorpe Village Hall. The speaker will be Mr Bickerdyke talking about his life with the BBC.

Plough Sunday

Thanks to all members of the Benefice and visitors who joined St Andrew's Church congregation at Wickhampton to celebrate Plough Sunday. Thankfully the weather was kind to us for once!

Rev'd Lorna Allies led the worship. Lesson readers were Diana Gilder and Nick Butcher and the organist was Brenda Pawsey. During the singing of the hymn 'We plough the fields and scatter the good seed on the land' the congregation were led out onto the church green by Edward Gilder carrying the processional cross.

Everyone gathered around the 8:5 tonne John Deere tractor with its 5 furrow reversible plough driven by Alfie Dunthorne of Hill Farm Limpenhoe.

After the Blessing ceremony Eric Baker from Ipswich played the tune 'Speed the Plough' on his melodeon as everyone returned to the church for Holy Communion and refreshments. All said 'God speed the Plough' as it was driven away onto the fields.

We introduced this age-old tradition of Blessing the Plough in 2008 and it has grown in popularity and become an annual event within our farming community.

Brenda Pawsey

Faith Animal Rescue & the Reedham Christmas Fayre

Well, what a lovely afternoon, very festive, lovely atmosphere, lots of people (perhaps not as many as last year) but all in all I think a very successful event.

I hope everyone did well. We were again very well supported and for that we are so grateful. We raised £165 for Faith. I cannot say a big enough thank you to you all – also thank you to Friends and Family members who helped. I must also say a big thank you to the organisers because without their hard work there would be no Fayre.

A Happy New Year to you all,

Rita and all the animals at Faith, and those that have found a loving home. Please don't forget there are lots more awaiting that happy day.

Rita James

Outlook

If you have colour pictures of local events suitable for the back page, please get them in even earlier.

A small additional point – please could contributors add their name and telephone no/email, just so we can contact if we don't understand something?
