From the (Reedham) Rectory

I am writing this article the day before the A Level results come out. It is an anxious time for so many young people and the results they receive tomorrow will influence their immediate plans and their future careers. The results will decide for them which course, college or university they go to depending on the offers they have received. Sometimes, as is the case with A Level results, our plans are not entirely in our own hands but dictated by the results we have achieved. Very often the plans we make don't turn out exactly as we expect or we have make choices when we are not entirely certain of the best way forward.

My own plans have changed a little. Peter and I love living in Reedham and have enjoyed the work and life here, but it seems that it is the right time for me to retire at the end of this year and move to a more relaxed season in my life in January 2019. We shall miss everyone. The villages we have been involved with seem so friendly and full of interesting people. We love the river and marshes too and will miss our morning walks along the Halvergate Road. Like all plans, one has to think and pray, and I have done a lot of that, and then finally make a choice hoping that God will bless it.

Plans are such a big part of our lives and, all the time, especially in the churches, but in other organisations too, plans are being made by small, dedicated teams of people. The Teddies Leap day at Wickhampton took a great deal of planning. Sue Burnham planned and worked for weeks to publicise and organise the event with help from a team. Maureen Hewitt planned and worked for weeks to get together a team and organise the Ploughmans' lunches. For everyone involved there were cakes to bake, signs to paint and put up, food to purchase, and the list goes on – everything was planned carefully and we had a most successful event.

Plans are in hand now for more Church events. Two I can think off immediately are the Flower Festival with a theme of Harvest in September at Beighton. Carolyn Wright and the project team have planned and worked to invite organisations, co-ordinate the placing of the flowers and so much more – everything planned carefully. Then there is the Christmas Tree Festival at Reedham in December and, already, a team is in place, a spreadsheet of actions and who is doing what is set up, co-ordinating the placing of trees is beginning and then there is the publicity – everything planned carefully.

The Bible has something to tell us about plans and planning so I'll finish this article with my own particular favourites:

Proverbs 16:3 'Commit to the Lord whatever you do and he will establish your plans'
 Jeremiah 29:11 'For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future of hope'.

I wish you all, especially our young people going off to new places after their exams, a future of hope.

God bless

Lorna

Teddies aloft again in Wickhampton! (see back page for pictures)

The sun shone gloriously down on St Andrew's Church in Wickhampton on Sunday August 5th as we held the second annual Teddy Bear Leap. One hundred and forty assorted furries were registered by Sue Burman and issued with gaily coloured parachutes. They were hoisted up the tower in batches of six to eight in a large basket, and were launched one by one from the top, to sail more or less gracefully down to earth. The name of each animal was announced by Bob Ottaway before the jump, often with its young owner doing the count down. Dozens of excited children rushed to pick up the brave parachutists and carry them on stretchers to the first aid tent. There, some very junior doctors examined them with stethoscopes. I am happy to report that no teddies were seriously injured by the experience.

There was quite a brisk south-easterly wind which gusted erratically around the tower and made the trip perilous – especially for the lighter animals, which were often wafted up well above the tower before they started to descend. Most did land safely but a few unlucky ones landed in trees, and at the close of the day there were still five which had to be rescued next day by Jake on a long ladder.

Ploughman's lunches, drinks and snacks were provided by Maureen Hewitt and her team of helpers. There were various attractions such as Splat the Rat, Tombola, Guess the Weight, Count the Sweets and of course the giant raffle.

The event has raised just over £1,000 for Wickhampton Church, and we are very grateful to Maureen and her catering team, Suzanne (whose idea it was) with Bob and their family; also to Brenda Pawsey, Elisabeth and Peter Ledward, Revd Lorna Allies, the many cake and raffle prize donors, and other willing volunteers on the day. Peter Allies

Reedham Reflections Charity DVD

'On 30th September 1933 Alfonso XIII, recently deposed King of Spain, sat in the bar parlour of The Lord Nelson Hotel at Reedham and wrote these words in the visitors book, - "It has been one of the greatest pleasures of my life to come here. Nobody noticed that I was completely tight ....."'

These are the intriguing opening words of the narration on the recently unveiled Reedham Reflections DVD. The presentation takes a look at Reedham village life in the 1920 to 1950 period by way of recently discovered cine film that has lain hidden for around seventy years, and The Lord Nelson Hotel Visitors Book from 1923 to 1940 with its associated photo collection. Film clips of Reedham Regatta, a ploughing match, village fetes, life on the marshes and a New Year's party at Reedham Rectory are all brought to life - a veritable treasure trove of long forgotten archive material.

The project has been brought to fruition by Chris Mutten and John Hipperson. Chris has discovered the archive material, consisting of cine film shot by his late uncle Fred Burgess during the 1938 to 1950 period and the Lord Nelson Visitors book with its associated photos from the estate of another uncle, Ron Pitt., son of the Nelson landlord in the 1923 to 1941 period. John, a keen amateur film maker, has created, written and produced the Reflections DVD. The voice over narration has been provided by John's eighteen year old granddaughter Asha.

The Reedham Reflections DVD is on sale at Reedham Post Office. Priced at £10, all proceeds from the sale after deduction of production expenses will be donated to local charities, including Reedham Church funds.

Tea and coffee will be served.

Please come along and enjoy.

Reedham Village Garage Sale

Held on a boiling hot Sunday the 8th July this year's village wide garage sale was another great success. Lots of visitors to the village and £235 pounds went to the school, this amount made up by the sale of maps, the charge for houses taking part and a number of donations by participants. Thanks to everyone who helped make the day a success either buying or selling.

Next year's event already planned for Sunday 7th July. More information to follow in the new year.

Anne and Theresa

OVER FIFTIES CLUB AND LOTTERY NEWS

13.

Well the lottery bingo has been won again after just 5 weeks, and the lucky winner was Ellen Thompson, the jackpot prize was £240.00. This lottery bingo is for anyone to join, not just Over Fifties members. It is £1.00 per week, so if you would like to join please ring me on 07585504199 - you have to be in it to win it.

Our July Hamper for Norfolk day was won by Shirley Gymer from Cantley. We had a quiz with some real Norfolk words for the members to try and guess which caused some mind searching. Our next hamper is on August 28th and is themed Food For Thought.

Our club meets every Tuesday at Reedham Village Hall 1.45pm, it is £1.50 per week, we have buffets through the year at different times, a Christmas party at the hall and a Christmas lunch at Acle Bridge which are all free. Our club is open to all villages and new members can join at anytime, just come to the hall on a Tuesday. Our yearly subscription is £7.00.

Each week there is a flyer bingo game for all members to play which has a cash prize. For the first half of the afternoon some members play 4 games of prize bingo, others play whist, then after refreshments we have a quiz and the Flyer. Make new friends; if you live alone and want company give me a ring and we will see if anyone lives near you to give you a lift.

This year the club has paid for two coach trips for the members, and another two which the club has organised but the members have paid for themselves, one of these being a trip to the Thursford Carol Concert in November. The club members are now getting ready for their next coach trip on August 29th to Holt and Wells.

Until next time, take care of yourselves.

Angie Woolsey, Secretary/Treasurer

Reedham Station Adopters

Many thanks to Mike Warner for his total dedication to being a Station Adopter for 12 years. He has dealt with the public, Railway officials and the transforming of the Station areas. He also set up the Heritage Centre and collected items from the village and beyond. He is still continuing to help with the Heritage Centre. Colin continues to maintain the car park bank to his high standard and Pauline, Cate and I will continue to look after the rest, including the Centre. Ann continues to be our voice in the village. We are also grateful for support from the village in giving plants and other help.

Faith Animal Rescue & Reedham Fête.

Well, it must be at least 6 years since we have had no rain on Fête Day – it was wonderful. Thankfully there was a lovely breeze. Well, it is thanks to all you lovely people that I can give Faith £210. It was a lovely day. Also, thank you for your support at the Fun Dog Show – I was able to give Foxy Lodge £155. I couldn't do it without your support and also the help of Family and Friends.

Toilet for Freethorpe Church

Good progress has been made in the last few weeks. We have cleared the site of the luxuriant thistle, bramble and nettle growth (at least down to ground level). The location for the excavation has been marked out. The order has been placed with NatSol of Llanidloes, and the toilet components are scheduled for delivery on September 26th. The installation, and the erection of the toilet shed, will be done by Mills Brothers of Freethorpe. We hope that the toilet will be available for use by the beginning of October.

The toilet will be sited at the western end of Freethorpe churchyard. It will be fitted out for disabled people, with wheelchair access, and will be available to any member of the public during the hours that the church is open (usually during the main part of the day). Peter Allies

Benefice Harvest and Lunch

On Sunday 30th September a Benefice Harvest Festival service is to be held at St. Botolph's, Limpenhoe. Following on from this, a Bring & Share Harvest Lunch is planned in Limpenhoe Village Hall. All Welcome. Mike Brook

Reedham Gardening Club

Our gardens took a real battering with the hot sun and heavy showers but they will soon recover with our help. Dead-heading, trimming and watering pots and baskets will give us colour until October. It is a good time to take cuttings of geraniums, fuschias and shrubs. Take off a non-flowering shoot about 2 – 3 inches long, put it in a pot and keep in the shade.

Vegetables such as Spring Cabbages and cauliflowers can be planted out. Salad leaves can be sown for a quick crop if the weather stays suitable.
