In Thy Lord is Risen: a celebration of the resurrection in words and music, on the 5th Sunday of Easter, our Benefice Choir will be singing Vaughan Williams' Five Mystical Songs, a setting of five poems by the 17th century Anglican priest, George Herbert.

The first Bible reading comes not from the end of the gospels, but (Mark 5.35ff) is the raising of Jairus' daughter, in which Jesus takes her by the hand and says, Little girl, arise – at which she revives and gets to her feet.

I chose it to reflect the opening of the first poem, in which Herbert bids his/our heart to Sing his praise Without delays, Who takes thee by the hand, that thou likewise With him may'st rise.

Several icons of the Resurrection (more precisely, of the descent into hell) depict Jesus reaching out to draw Adam and Eve by the hand out of their deadly prison.

Taking by the hand is thus a physical expression of resurrection. But it need not wait for our death. We can identify it with lesser, but still significant, uplifting experiences, in which someone has proffered us a hand of support, encouragement or invitation; or we have extended a hand to another. We speak of someone being lifted out of despair. Dance partners and wedding couples take each other by the hand. Good neighbours offer a helping hand.

The Gospels emphasise that the girl got up and walked about: not dragged to her feet, but enabled to rediscover her own life, strength and ability. Jesus' hand-taking is empowering and encouraging.

That is the hand that our Risen Lord extends to each of us; and invites us, whenever we have the opportunity, to extend to others.

With Easter blessings,
Martin Greenland

The Treasurer of the PCC reached for her early morning cup of tea and nudged the Churchwarden aggressively in the ribs. "I've just paid out the annual subscription to the Prayer Book Society. What are we doing as a Corporate Member to justify our membership? Shouldn't we be more proactive?"

The Churchwarden sighed. Getting up to let out the labrador at 6.15 am was bad enough, but questions of this sort being thrown at a chap just before "Bach before Seven" on Radio 3 was going too far. However, 46 years of experience had taught him not only to recognise a rhetorical question when he heard one but also the futility of resistance to the Treasurer whom he knew had the full support of the Secretary (i.e. herself).

So it was time to put on thinking caps. Thinking is thirsty work and the occasional glass of red wine proved essential to the creative process. Eventually it was decided that we would organise a day of worship comprising a series of services using the liturgy of the Book of Common Prayer. It would be called "The Exciting of Piety", derived from the Preface to the BCP:

"Our general aim...in this undertaking was...to do that, which to our best understandings we conceived might most tend to the preservation of Peace and Unity in the Church; the procuring of Reverence, and exciting of piety and Devotion in the Publick Worship of God."

We began with Morning Prayer, read without hymns or a sermon. After coffee, the Litany, followed by Holy Communion. Prior to Communion the team of Benefice bellringers joined us to ring the magnificent set of six church bells. We adjourned to the nearby Village Hall for lunch and thereafter to listen to a talk by James Marston, an Ordinand at Westcott House in Cambridge, and a popular Eastern Daily Press journalist. After a short break to "take the air" and enjoy warm spring sunshine, the day concluded with Choral Evensong led by the Benefice Choir under the direction of Michael Nicholas, former Organist and Master of the Choristers at Norwich Cathedral, who had composed an anthem specially for the occasion. This concluding service attracted a congregation of 80.

It was a special day. Piety was indeed exciting. The congregation gave generously, and the Treasurer was happy. She has promised to pay the PBS subscription again next year.

Nick Butcher

Reedham & District WI

At our April meeting Paul Strutt from Norfolk Accident Rescue Service (NARS) gave a fascinating and interesting talk about this charity. NARS work alongside the NHS Ambulance service with highly trained medical staff often leading the Ambulance workers. We learnt that not all Ambulance staff are fully trained paramedics and so this is where NARS can be of enormous help especially in road traffic accidents. After a question and answer session, Paul was thanked by Julia Kilner. Our next meeting on Tues 7th May 7 for 7.30pm will be our Resolutions talk when we will vote on "Don't fear the smear" or "A call against the decline in local bus services" The WI campaigns are usually well balanced and our vote will go to the National Annual Meeting in June. Later in the evening we will have a games session, so bring your favourite game with you!

New members always made welcome.

Reedham Churchyard Maintenance Group

The group met up on 20th March for their first clear up of the year. We were joined by children from Reedham Primary School who helped plant 300 snowdrop/bluebell/aconite bulbs, to improve our wildflower areas. The grown-ups worked on crafting little hoops to delineate where the contractors should mow and which sections of ground to leave to revert to flower meadow. The children enjoyed a talk about the history of the church and its Roman site and the story of Ragnar Lothbrok, the Viking, who may have stood on the very spot where they were standing, having been washed up at Reedham. The sun shone on us, the chocolate cake was delicious and it was a delightful day. There is a report by the children in Reedham-Read It, the school magazine, copies of which are available around the village.

We will be meeting up again in June (date to be decided) and would welcome help from anyone who cares to join us. The churchyard belongs to us all, whether we have friends and relatives buried there or not, and it is up to locals to keep it looking lovely.

Celebrations to mark 175th Anniversary of Norfolk's First Railway 12.

The very first Railway to open in Norfolk celebrates its 175th Anniversary this year and organisations along the route are joining together to mark the occasion.

First opened in 1844, the Railway connecting the City of Norwich with the coast at Great Yarmouth is now part of the Greater Anglia operated Wherry Lines and to celebrate the anniversary the Wherry Lines Community Rail Partnership has joined with community groups and station volunteers to host a number of activities including a special exhibition which will tour various towns and villages along the original route, a free to join Guided Walk taking in some of the outstanding natural beauty of the line as well as a model railway display and station tea parties.

Authorised by Parliament in 1842, proposers of the new line appointed Robert Stephenson as Chairman and George Stephenson as Engineer with construction undertaken by Messrs Grissel and Peto. The original route ran via Brundall, Cantley and Reedham and work commenced in 1843. A ceremonial opening took place on 30 April 1844 with the first passenger trains running the next day. Following construction, Samuel Morton Peto, who had purchased both the Somerleyton Estate and Lowestoft Harbour, obtained permission to create a railway east of Reedham to Lowestoft which opened in the Summer of 1847. A second route from Norwich to Yarmouth via Lingwood and Acle opened in 1883 and these routes form the modern-day Wherry Lines. Brundall Gardens Halt, funded privately by Norfolk Cinema Impresario FH Cooper opened in 1924.

A small exhibition about the railway will tour towns and villages along the original route during the Summer, starting at Great Yarmouth Library (April 29-May 12), Gorleston Library (May 20-June 1), Brundall COOP and Post Office (June 3 – 15) and Reedham Community Centre (June 18-23) and Reedham Station Heritage Room (June 24-30). The COOP at Brundall will also host a family event on the morning of June 8.

Other activities planned include a free to join Guided Walk on Sunday 5 May at 11.15. Starting from Buckenham Station (connecting out of 10.58 from Norwich and 09.46 from Lowestoft) and led by Trevor Garrod, the 5mile walk will follow paths and tracks past the church and over the ridge to Strumpshaw village. Then via quiet roads, past Strumpshaw Hall to Strumpshaw Fen RSPB reserve ending with a stroll along the lane to Buckenham station. For those preferring a slightly shorter walk, it is possible to go from the centre of Strumpshaw to Lingwood Station.

At Cantley Station on May 4 (10-2), the adopter team will host a Model Railway Exhibition and refreshments with an opportunity to view and hear more about the stations' award winning gardens, the Heritage Room at Reedham Station will be open to visitors from June 24-30 and on May 11 (2-4), a Tea Party will take place at Reedham Station.*

The Wherry Lines itself is currently undergoing a major £60M modernisation scheme by Network Rail which will see the replacement of the Victorian signalling system. To facilitate this, part of the original route via Berney Arms is temporarily out of action with trains being diverted via Acle. Rail Operator Greater Anglia is also set to begin introducing its brand-new fleet of three and four car bi-mode trains from later this year. Martin Halliday, Development Officer, Community Rail Norfolk

*N.B. All welcome to the free Tea Party at Reedham Station on May 11th – Ann Thompson.

News from Reedham Station

The Station Adopters wish to thank the organisers of the Ferry Fest for the very generous donation; also Joe at Station Road and Catherine at Church View Close for the plants.

EXHIBITION CANTLEY STATION SAT 4TH MAY 10.00am till 2.00pm

We are celebrating our 175th birthday, or should I say, Cantley Station and the Norwich to Yarmouth line via Cantley and Reedham are. We were the first line to open in Norfolk with the first train at the end of April 1844. This is contemporary with the present series of Victoria on BBC1.

Perhaps you have family memories, passed down a few generations, of when the line opened and the early days of steam. Please come and share them with us.

Tea and coffee will be served between 10.00am and 2.00pm on Platform 2 at Cantley Station. Why not come by train?

FOCUS - Friends of Cantley Station - Carole, David, Robert, Steve and Tim.

CANTLEY FLOWER SHOW SAT 7TH SEPT at 2.00pm

I hope you have had a chance to look at our website at cantley.org/flowershow to see all the classes that you may enter this year.

Our special guest this year, to present the prizes for the Cantley Poster Competition as well as the Trophies for the Flower Show, is Ian Redhead. You will all know him from Cantley Sugar Factory.

We would love to see you at our show this year.

Robert Beadle Chair Cantley Flower Show 01493701231.

Reedham Village Show

To challenge you this year, we have included a Swiss Roll in the schedule and "Anything Pink" is added. The pattern for the Intensive Care Baby Unit is a small blanket:- Pair No.8 knitting needles, approx.. 120g double knitting yarn, any colour. Cast on 1 stitch, increase 1 stitch at beginning of each row to 140 stitches, knit one row, then decrease 1 stitch each row to end.

Reedham Gardening Club

It is a very busy time in the garden, but be wary of planting summer bedding until the middle of May. Spring bulbs are best dead headed but leave the foliage to turn yellow. Shrubs can be pruned after flowering and given some fertilizer. Beetroot, carrots, parsnips and leeks can be sown but runner beans may be best sown in pots and kept undercover to get established.

Many thanks to everyone who supported the Easter Eggstravaganza. A fabulous day with lots of Easter egg-related activities including egg painting, egg rolling, egg hunt, Easter bonnets, paper plate crafts and wonderful refreshments. Even the weather played along! All proceeds were in aid of the Restoration & Improvements Appeal.

Our next fundraiser is on 18 May in the form of a Car Treasurer Hunt, 10:00am to 4:00pm. First entries from 10:00am at All Saints Church, last entries at 1:00pm, you will be given a set of clues to find your way around the local area and hopefully locate the treasure at the end. £15 per car including refreshments. Non-treasure hunt visitors also welcome; we also hope to have a display of church records to browse on the day.

Answer to last month's Pathfinder Puzzle

'This joyful Eastertide
Away with sin and sorrow.
My Love, the crucified,
Hath sprung to life this morrow!
Had Christ, that once was slain
Ne'er burst His three day prison,
Our faith had been in vain:
But now hath Christ arisen.'

REEDHAM PARISH COUNCIL - Meeting held Monday 1st April 2019 at Reedham Village Hall

There were 6 Councillors present, the Clerk, County Councillor Brian Iles and District Councillor Grant Nurden. 4 members of the public were in attendance. Apologies were received from Councillors Case, Ball, Lester, Thompson and Grattan. The Council 15. meeting commenced at 7.30 pm.

County Councillor Iles informed the Council that Norfolk County Council are still working on how to spend their budget. Proposals by the Boundary Commission may mean that the County loses 4 Councillors. £2,000 of Councillor Iles Highways budget has been earmarked for the 2nd Limpenhoe flooding problem.

District Councillor Nurden reported that Broadland District Council have appointed their new senior management team and are in the process of recruiting the remaining Assistant Directors.

The Chairman of the Village Hall Committee Chris Bradbury gave the following report: the play equipment safety inspection for April will be completed by the end of the week. The outdoor gym equipment is being well used. The March Cash Bingo jackpot was not won, the jackpot now stands at £290 in 59 numbers or less. On Saturday 4th May "Mary Poppins Returns" will be shown.

Additional bins along Riverside, provided earlier than last year, have been requested by a member of the public.

There were no planning applications received for consideration.

A survey of the trees along the Woodland Walk will be undertaken to identify any that need urgent attention.

The Parish Council agreed to renew the lease on the allotments. Although the lease is only for 3 years the Council has a commitment to continue providing the allotments for as long as residents would like them. There is currently 1 half plot available at the allotments. Please contact the Clerk for further details. The Allotment Committee is offering support and advice to those new to allotments.

There were 4 recorded crimes in Reedham in January.

The Annual Parish Meeting will be held on Tuesday 14th May in the Lounge at the Village Hall. All residents are invited to attend.

*** A reminder that an initial Neighbourhood Plan consultation event is planned for the 29th April. This will be a chance to let the Parish Council and Neighbourhood Plan team know how you would like your village to progress over the next 10 to 15 years. We are looking for ideas for housing, traffic, leisure provision, schools, shops, businesses, footpaths, and anything else you think is important to making Reedham a good place to live and work. Please come along and tell us your ideas! ***

No further progress has been made during discussions with the landowner on the reopening the Permissive Path. Another meeting is planned for April.

Time and Date of Next Meeting.

Monday 13th May 2019 at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. This is the Annual Parish Council meeting where the new Council will be enrolled. All parishioners are welcome to attend.
