Having been in Acle for 15 years, I was reflecting how the make-up of the congregation has changed in that time: only just over half of the current membership were here when I came. In the intervening years people have arrived and departed. Some have done both: passing through within that period. But Acle is that kind of place: although proud to be a village, it has many of the characteristics of a small town, like facilities and transport, attracting people to move in, or move on. It's a rather different picture at Beighton with Moulton, the other parish I have had cure of since 2008: although people do move in and out of the villages, the turnover in the church congregation has been minimal. When I gained the parishes of the former Freethorpe/Reedham benefice in 2014-15 I found similar stability, soon learning that there are some very well-established local families and many residents haven't migrated far in their lives – it's a dimension of rural ministry I appreciate. Not that it's a uniquely rural attribute: I came across urban areas in South Yorkshire that are equally well-rooted. Just substitute the Working Men's Club for the village hall or pub and mining or steel-working for farming.

Life is sometimes likened to cloth woven on a loom. A loom has two kinds of thread: the fixed warp, and the perpendicular weft which is threaded through them. It seems to me our lives and communities are made up of warp and weft. The warp is the rooted part: family, ancestry, traditions, institutions. Village football, cricket and bowls clubs. Bonfire Night. The Social Club. For many people (not just regular attenders) church is part of the warp: a custodian of tradition; something to go back to at key times; the resting place of cherished members of the family. If the thread of faith runs through our life, it is anchored at the beginning and end in God; he is our source, our ground, our stay and our fulfilment. We are entering a period in the church year when the warp is very much to the fore: All Saints, Remembrance, Christmas.

But warp alone doesn't make a fabric. Running across it is the weft. For us as individuals, the journey to new places; the exploration of new things; the unexpected encounters; the shifting experiences. In our communities, the incomers who bring new perspectives; the new initiatives; the changes forced upon us. The weft brings colour; changes the pattern; makes new connections. The Holy Spirit is the weft in the Trinity: the bringer of new life and direction.

But weft without warp would be no more than a pile of loose threads. Areas of new housing begin as weft: with no centre or history and full of unconnected people (or people whose connections are elsewhere). They need weaving into the local community – where they will influence the pattern as a result. For Swallowtail Place in Acle (with the help of Sista Barrista!) it's likely to happen rapidly; in other cases it may take much longer.

Jesus came from a rural area: he walked the fields with local fishermen. But in his ministry he was rejected at the outset in his home town and at the end in the big city: as an itinerant preacher he pointed people towards their home in the kingdom of God. Yet he welcomed the support of rooted people, like Mary, Martha and Lazarus in Bethany; just as Paul needed the likes of Lydia in Philippi and the church which began in her home.

We need to value both the warp and the weft in our lives and our communities; and the rich patterns they produce.

In the love of God,

Martin Greenland

Parish Registers

Holy Matrimony

Caroline Sarah Davies and Graham Jeffrey Woodcock on 23rd September at St Edmund's, Acle.

Holy Baptism

Faye Fisher on 1st October at All Saints', Freethorpe.

Funeral

We commit to God's keeping:

Teresa Trueman on 6th October at All Saints' Beighton.

Parish Notes.

The Rector will be receiving donations for St. Edmund's Church Gift Day at the Farmers' Market in the church hall: 9.00am – 12 noon, Saturday 11th November. Because it is Armistice Day, we will be marking the Silence at 11.00 am.

Sunday 12th November is Remembrance Sunday. There will be Acts of Remembrance at the war memorials in Limpenhoe (10.45am, followed by a service in the adjacent church), Halvergate (10.50am, followed by a service in church), Freethorpe (10.50am, followed by a service in the adjacent Methodist Church), Reedham (10.55am) and Moulton St. Mary (12.30pm). Acle Churches Together Service of Remembrance will be in St. Edmund's Church at 3.00pm. Cantley Primary School will mark Remembrance in St. Margaret's Church on Friday 10th.

St. Edmund, Acle will mark its Patronal Festival on Sunday 19th November, with an 11.00am service attended by our friends from Acle Methodist Church.

Many people were shocked and saddened to learn during October of the death of Brian Bemment. Brian was organist (and, notably, pianist) at St. Edmund's Church: the professionalism, colour and humour which were a feature of and accompanied his playing will be very much missed. He had also played at a number of other local churches (including Reedham) during his career. He also contributed his financial skills to the running of a number of local organisations over the years, including Acle Voluntary Aid. His funeral was held at St. Edmund's on 26th October; our prayers are with Janet and the rest of Brian's family.

That means that St. Edmund's is currently not only looking for a new Treasurer (could you help with that?) but also an organist (or for anyone who could play until we get one; there is also a grand piano which would work for some services).

Acle & District Royal British Legion.

The Speaker on the 4th November will be Keith Minns, on Highway Maintenance. It will be in the Bure Room.

Rehearsals are underway for Wind in the Willows. Rehearsals are every Friday night in Cantley or Reedham Village Hall and we welcome new members throughout the year. We are an inclusive group, with no experience required.

We are performing Wind in the Willows on Friday 26th and Saturday 27th January 2024 at Reedham Village Hall.

If you'd like to be involved with helping behind the scenes or on the stage, please contact us via Facebook or contact our chairperson, Kerri-Anne, on 07824468242.

We have also enjoyed extra quiz nights over the summer and our last quiz on 8th October raised £102.50. Thank you to The Ship for hosting us again.

Our upcoming quiz dates are on Sunday 12th November, 10th December, 14th January, 11th February 10th March and 14th April. at The Ship in Reedham. They start at 7:30pm and are £1.50 per person with teams of up to 6 people.

Cantley & District W.I.

Our next meeting will take place on Wednesday November 15th at 7.30pm in Cantley Village Hall. Last month our D.I.Y meeting took the form of a very enjoyable quiz. For our next meeting our speaker, Jan Davis, will be talking to us about local politics. Could be quite an eye-opener! For more information contact Barbara on 07789845050. New members always very welcome.

Thanks

We wish to thank the Reedham bell ringers for their kindness by ringing a solemn peel for our grandson at St. Edmund's who died tragically and suddenly last week in the USA.

It was a great comfort to us and to our family in America that we were able to record it and send it for his funeral. It was our tribute to him as we were unable to be with our family and there is nothing similar in their area of the US.

Damien Christopher Andrew Morris 10 May 2000 – 3 October 2023

May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Thank you again and bless you all.

Diane and David Wynne-Fitzgerald

Reedham Ringers

We continue to practice every Monday at Reedham church and this month have also rung at Acle on 2 consecutive Mondays. On 10th October we rang to mark the introduction of Loss Certificates for babies lost before 24 weeks gestation. Up until now such babies received no official recognition. Campaigners have fought for a change in the law and from October an official certificate can be issued to families that would like one. This has been partly due to the work of the Mariposa Trust, which supports families that suffer the loss of a child. One of their main activities is organising Saying Goodbye Services for anyone who has lost a child at any stage of pregnancy, birth or infancy, whether the loss is recent or happened 80 years ago. The services are held at cathedrals throughout the UK and are open to those of any faith and none. It provides the space to say goodbye supported by others who have experienced the same sadness. Details of their work can be found at www.mariposatrust.org

(We also rang 'Diminishing Rounds' at Acle on Monday 8th in memory of Damien Morris and on Monday 16th in memory of Brian Bemment. KC)

The Janet Church Memorial Evening

10.

Family, friends and villagers gathered at the village hall last Friday evening to celebrate Janet's lifetime of involvement and achievements in her home village of Freethorpe.

Nick Spencer chairman of Freethorpe Parish Council welcomed all present and spoke of her knowledge of everyone and everything concerning the village and its history over many years as a Parish Councillor. He said, "If you needed an answer - just ask Janet "

John Fleetwood, the Tree Warden, planted a flowering almond tree surrounded by spring flowering bulbs in her memory on the village hall green.

David Grint, chairman of Freethorpe Village Hall Trustees, dedicated a picnic bench in the play area which was unveiled by Richard Church. David spoke of having known Janet all his life, also like her, growing up in the village and her long service (since 1973) as secretary, then trustee and finally chairman herself of the village hall. He said, "If you wanted something done - just ask Janet"

A plaque was unveiled on the bowls pavilion wall and Jill Finein, secretary of Freethorpe Bowls Club spoke of Janet's lifetime love of the sport and how she encouraged many into the game.

Reverend Martin Greenland gave the vote of thanks and explained the proposal to fundraise and install new oak doors to the porch of All Saints Parish Church using money raised from Janet's funeral memorial fund. Janet known locally as " Mrs Freethorpe "had been involved in all aspects of village life, clubs, activities, organisations and local churches all her life, volunteering willingly and always with a smile.

Afterwards everyone was able to share memories together in the social club bar and hall. A Raffle raised £445 for village hall funds.

It was a fitting evening's tribute to a lifetime of dedication and hard work - Janet is greatly missed by all.

OVER FIFTIES CLUB & LOTTERY

Another successful month saw us gain another member and we welcomed Ann Thompson back into the club.

This month we are very busy, we have a coach day trip, and at the end of the month we have our Halloween buffet coupled with the October birthdays.

If you have been thinking of joining then do come along. It costs £3.00 per meeting at Reedham Village Hall every Tuesday, just come along at 1.30pm., this includes a free raffle and refreshments. Our yearly subscription is £7.00.

I have just completed the club calendars for 2024.

Next month we have our Christmas party at the end of the month with our grand raffle, then in December we have our Christmas lunch at Acle Bridge. All these items are free to club members.

Our lottery was won by Peggy Clutten, the jackpot was £231.00 and Peggy very kindly gave the club a donation.

Don't be alone come and join us.

Angie Woolsey
Secretary/Treasurer

November in the Garden

Send off for seed and plant catalogues and start planning what to grow next year. Continue planting spring bulbs for next year.

Lift Dahlia tubers after the first frost, clean them off and store in dry compost in a cool, frost-proof place.

Plant bare-root hedging, roses, trees and shrubs, before the weather turns really cold.

Check stored crops for signs of rot or deterioration.

Remove pond pumps and fountains to prevent ice damage when temperatures fall below freezing.

Harvest Supper

Thanks to those who attended or contributed to the Harvest Supper on Sunday 15th October. About 21 of us attended, our numbers being depleted by a nasty cold which seems to be going around. It was good to get together and share some fellowship with some delicious food. There was a collection for the Christian Aid Middle East Appeal amounting to £30.
