August Year's Mind: Terry Dible, Fr. Gresham Kirkby

Today we celebrate the 11th Sunday after Trinity as we continue our journey through the Green Season of Ordinary Time. Today we will be baptising baby Anthony and we give a special welcome to Kysha his mother and all his friends and family who are with us today for this very special occasion.

Open House Weekend 16 & 17 September 2017.

For the past two years we have taken part in this event joining in with many others across London. Last year, we had nearly 200 visitors over the weekend and we hope to see as many people this year.

We need volunteers to help show people around on the day to ensure that they are given a warm welcome.

There is a sign-up sheet at the back of church. It would be great if you could volunteer for one or more of the two-hour slots.

A date for your diary – Leopold Area Regeneration Team have organised a trip to Portsmouth and Southsea on Saturday 23 September 2017.

Tickets £15 and are available at St Paul's Way Community Centre.

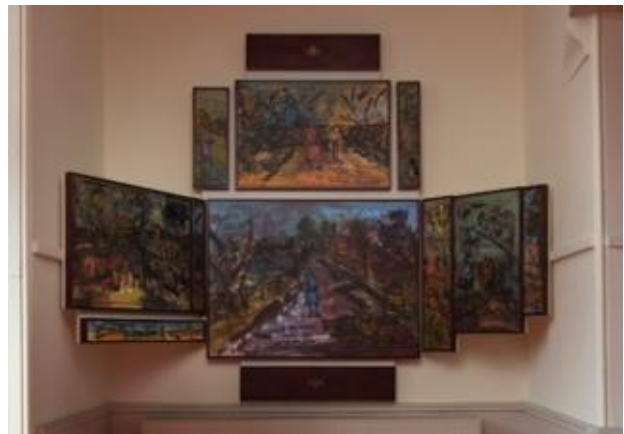

Art Exhibition at St Paul's Bow Common: 7th September 2017 to end of November 2017.

We are delighted that Helen de Sybel a local artist will be exhibiting her work 'Scenes from the Old Testament' in our church in the autumn.

Helen has offered to hold a workshop 9th September 2017 for anyone who wishes to attend, with a view to the work also being exhibited in church.

The Exhibition will be launched on Thursday 7th September with a private viewing of the work. If you would like to attend, please let Mthr. Bernadette know as it is an invitation only event.

Our organist,
Katie De La

Matter, leads her Baroque music group Ensemble Tempus Fugit in performances around the UK.

Her group is fundraising for a revival tour of its 'Calcutta' show: the only theatrical show to ever feature multicultural crossover music from India in the 1780s!

Exploring the history of multiculturalism has an important resonance now.

In the late 18th century, wives of East India Company officers invited local Indian Classical musicians to play music with them in their front rooms. This shouldn't have worked: European and Indian music are completely different!

But a manuscript in the Fitzwilliam contains tunes of Indian songs that they played together — and this is what Katie has built a show around, with Baroque musicians, Indian Classical musicians, a story and puppets to link all the different music together.

All of this is expensive! So she's running a crowdfunding campaign, with rewards for donors like tickets, tracks from the show, a Diwali food walk with an award-winning chef, and more:

Mthr. Bernadette will be on annual leave from after the service today until Friday 1st September. During that time the church will be in the care of Julian Bream one of our Churchwardens.

Little Lights, the Tuesday Sale and Sunday School are taking a well-earned break during August. They will resume activities in September. We take this opportunity to thank Toni, Laurie, Mary & Isabel and their teams for all their hard work and commitment. Children are very welcome to use of the Children's Corner next to the Lady Chapel during services in August.
