Today we celebrate Pentecost - the Birthday of the Christian Church, when God's own power, life and Spirit were breathed into the first followers of Jesus, giving them the courage, enthusiasm and passion to proclaim the Good News that God promises to be with all his beloved people, even to the end of time.

We especially look forward to our Sunday School leading us in part of the service and to their presentation of Act 21:1-21.

Refreshing the Prayer List: Every so often we revise the list of people for whom we pray regularly, and which appears on this sheet and on the website. We try to keep this current and meaningful by 'refreshing' the list and starting again.

So, you are invited to write the names of anyone you wish to be prayed for by completing the form at the back of church. When people get better it is always good to take them off the list. The form will be at the back of church until the end of the service today so please do add the name(s) of anyone you wish us to pray for before you leave today.

Special Service of Choral Evensong: 6.30pm Pentecost this evening - Sunday 9th June 2019.

The East London Choral Evensong Choir have offered us the opportunity to experience Choral Evensong once again in the comfort of our own church. If you are not familiar with this kind of service or you didn't make the last service, I encourage you come along and experience it for yourself – you won't be disappointed.
