Today we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration. Our journey through the Green season of Ordinary Time is interrupted as we ponder the glory of God revealed in the Transfiguration.

4 weeks to go!
Returning to worship in our church: Sunday 6

September at 10am.

At our PCC meeting we decided that this would be the best date for us as a community to return to our church building to worship together. In the meantime, the church is now open for Morning and Evening Prayer at 8.30am & 5.30pm during the week from Mthr. Bernadette will continue to Zoom these services from church, but you are welcome to join her in church whilst maintaining the appropriate social distance if you wish.

Summer Photos

The first photo is the gate way to Roundhay Woods in Leeds – one of my favourite parks and the other is one of the vicarage roses which have blossomed wonderfully this year. Arthur has sent us a lovely shot of the Cotswolds.

And finally – a view of the church

from the Skaters Park across the road.
