Congratulations.....

100 years.... Special congratulations go to Miss Jessie Birch who recently celebrated her 100th birthday. Miss Birch was born in Heyrod and spent most of her life there, until earlier last year when she moved to Parkhill Nursing Home. Miss Birch used to attend various activities at St George's and especially enjoyed our Care Bear events.

50 years..... Our congratulations also go to Alan and Margaret Smith who celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at the end of January. Alan and Margaret are both keen workers for St George's and we hope they enjoyed the holiday they arranged to celebrate their special anniversary.

SMILE FOR YOU

Smiling is infectious; you catch it like the flu,
When someone smiled at me today I started smiling too.
I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin
When he smiled I realised I'd passed it on to him.
I thought about that smile then I realised its worth,
A single smile, just like mine, could travel round the earth.
So, if you fell a smile begin, don't leave it undetected
Let's start an epidemic quick, and get the world infected!

As we have no 'From the Vicar' at the moment some members of the congregation have kindly agreed to take it in turn to write the lead article. This month George Vernon tells us how Operation Christmas Child was started.

Giving is Receiving

This is the story of how the whole shoebox campaign began. A story of how a bad boy came good; a story of an acorn to oak tree- a story of a one-off charitable project growing to the biggest of it's kind in the world.

David Cooke is the founder of the amazing scheme. Born in Chester, one of four siblings living in a small terraced house with his parents, he experienced a difficult upbringing. In part, this was due to his parents unusual religious way of life which gave the children restricted contact with the outside world. This was coupled with a hard-line approach to discipline. Dave was often locked-up in his bedroom for misbehaving. He would climb out of the window and run away from his unhappiness. He felt like a leper, excluded from all kinds of things. On leaving school, he fell into a bad crowd of youths and got involved in stealing bikes and shoplifting. Fortunately for him, he got caught quite early into his life of crime and he realized he had to do something about it. He became an apprentice to a Joiner and went to college. It was at this time that a close friend of Dave's got killed in a shooting accident. This had a profound effect. Dave had been attending church with his parents and the Vicar there took him under his wing, even getting him involved in running a local youth club. He became a strong committed Christian always looking to help others in his community-this was to expand in a massive way!

One of Dave's lessons from church was that we all should help others less fortunate than ourselves and do something practical, "not just spout words", as he would often say. He thought he would try and offer help to orphans abroad, with useful items and gifts at Christmas time. Not knowing what it would lead to, together with help from family and friends, he set up the project entitled 'Operation Christmas Child'.

David's sister and a friend had the brilliant idea of asking every child to wrap a shoe-box in Christmas paper and fill it with things another child would enjoy. Each box would be sealed with a message of love via a card or letter. Thousands of boxes began to pour in. The shoebox campaign as we now know it was well and truly on its way!

The horrendous pictures Dave had witnessed on television news from Romania determined the direction his charity should go. Images of the oppressive orphanages of the Ceausescu regime left very few British people unmoved by the cruelty and injustice. David had always felt that God provided him with the motivation and the help of specialists in his efforts to help these children. Residents of Wrexham, David's home town, rolled up their sleeves and got involved. Together with such people and the local media, the campaign began to gain momentum. Funds started flowing in following media appeals. Many offers of help poured in and the appeals centre was quickly filled with toys, shoes, soap, toothpaste, food parcels, nappies, bandages and blankets- the list is endless. What had started as a snowball was quickly turning into an avalanche! Tons of medical requisites were donated, from defibrillators to portable X-ray machines and before long over half a million pounds worth of such equipment were waiting to be taken to Romania. David somehow managed to 'borrow' a warehouse near to his workplace to cope with the new scale of Operation Christmas Child. His original plan of taking two lorry loads of gifts had turned into a convoy of seven lorries packed to the hilt, with a team of 18 drivers and a film crew!

That's how it all started. Since those early days, the campaign grew to such a size that it was necessary in the interests of the children it served, for it to be professionally run, hence its current link with the charity Samaritan's Purse. Operation Christmas Child has gone on to provide millions of gift-filled shoeboxes from countries around the world over the past 20 years. It is the world's largest children's Christmas appeal.

On the local front, our church has continued to be involved in providing gift boxes and help in driving and warehouse work. The good done is immeasurable. Gratitude expressed by millions of children receiving a gift is amazing- so little means so much to them. Huge smiles on the faces of children overseas demonstrate the personal meaning of each simple gift. Children discover the power of giving. Once again showing it is better to give than to receive.

George Vernon- Operation Christmas Child

Word search for February

February is the month of romance. Millions of Valentine cards will be sent in the next week or two, as we celebrate our romantic love for that special person in our lives. But there are other kinds of love to celebrate: and on Candlemas we remember Mary and Joseph taking their baby son to the temple to present him to God. Jesus' whole life was a loving present to us from God. Through his death for us on the cross, and his resurrection, his love can now transform anyone's life. Romances can die, but God's love for us is always there. But it won't do us much good – unless we accept it!

Lighting and Insulation Fund

We have reached our target! So a big thank you to everyone who contributed. We recently received a couple of large donations; this enabled the work to be finished earlier than expected. We raised nearly £4,000 but would have needed more had it not been for the team of St George's members who carried out a lot of the work themselves along with Ted Longden's professional expertise.

At the moment we pay a standing order of £822 for our gas and hopefully with our new insulation this will save us some money, although the main reason for our high costs is the inefficient and old boiler we have. So funding a new boiler is next on the list and this will cost us at least £8,000. Times are hard for everyone at the moment. This is a very large amount of money to find on top of our usual outgoing and especially without a vicar, but with prayer and a positive approach we will be able to get there, I'm sure!

With Valentine's Day in mind...

Romance, love, marriage and all that stuff

the way children see it....

Q How do you decide whom to marry?

A You got to find somebody who likes the same stuff. Like, if you like sports, she should like it that you like sports, and she should keep the crisps and dip coming. - Alan, age 10

A No person really decides before they grow up who they're going to marry. God decides it all way before, and you get to find out later who you're stuck with. - Kirsten, age 10

Q What is the right age to get married?

A 23 is the best age because you know the person FOREVER by then. - Camille, age 10

A No age is good to get married at. You got to be a fool to get married. - Freddie, age 6

Q How can a stranger tell if two people are married?

A You might have to guess, based on whether they seem to be yelling at the same kids. - Derrick, age 8

Q What do you think your mum and dad have in common?

A Both don't want any more kids. - Lori, age 8

Q What do most people do on a date?

A Dates are for having fun, and people should use them to get to know each other. Even boys have something to say, if you listen long enough. - Lynnette, age 8 (isn't she a treasure)

A On the first date, they just tell each other lies and that usually gets them interested enough to go for a second date. - Martin, age 10

Q What would you do on a first date that was turning sour?

A I'd run home and play dead. The next day I would call all the newspapers and make sure they wrote about me in all the dead columns. - Craig, age 9

Q When is it okay to kiss someone?

A When they're rich. - Pam, age 7

A The law says you have to be eighteen, so I wouldn't want to mess with that. - Curt, age 7

A The rule goes like this: If you kiss someone, then you should marry them and have kids with them. It's the right thing to do. - Howard, age 8

Q Is it better to be single or married?

A It's better for girls to be single but not for boys. Boys need someone to clean up after them. - Anita, age 9

Q How would the world be different if people did not get married?

A There sure would be a lot of kids to explain, wouldn't there? - Kelvin, age 8

And the Number 1 Favourite is.....

Q How would you make a marriage work?

A Tell your wife that she looks pretty, even if she looks like a truck. - Ricky, age 10 (smart fellow)

Newlyweds know each other better than older couples

How well do you know your partner? It seems that the shorter time you have been married, the better you know their likes and dislikes. In a recent study, psychologists found that couples who have been together for an average of 40 years knew less about each other's likes and dislikes than those who have been together for only a year or two.

They believe that this is because at the start of a relationship, people pay more attention to each other. Years on, they take their partner for granted, and 'stop looking' at their partner in any detail. It was also found that couples who shared the same tastes made the best guesses about each other, regardless of age.

Take this quiz, to see how well you know some things about your spouse:

What is their current favourite music?

What is their current favourite TV programme or film?

Name three kinds of food that they best like.

What is your spouse's current favourite garment?

What colour would they most like in the bedroom? In the living room?

Where would they most like to holiday this coming year?

What sort of furniture do they like? Dark? Light? Modern? Traditional?

If your spouse could do anything for a day, what would that be?

If your spouse is frightened of one thing, what is it?

What would be your spouse's 'dream' for the future?
