Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I can't believe 'The Big Day' is almost upon us. That one day of the year which is meant to be so special, so 'magical', but that also involves so much planning, expense, anticipation, shopping, cooking and eating. Christmas Day. Christmas often seems to begin immediately after All Hallows Eve (Hallowe'en), and it seems to end on Boxing Day when adverts for summer holidays appear on TV, and Next is open a 6am for the sales. What happens to all that expectation and hope? What happens to all that food, and all those presents? Christmas, or certainly the aftermath of Christmas can be a big disappointment, and incredibly short! It all seems to be over so quickly, and it all seems to focus on that one day.

Of course, for those of us who love Christ and know the true meaning and significance of Christmas, this special time isn't just one day. It's a whole season. A whole season of celebration and thanksgiving, and of hearing and contemplating the greatest event in history, the Incarnation. No amount of shopping, cooking or even partying can really express the joy we feel at this most amazing Good News. Good News which is, to coin a phrase, not just for Christmas, but is for all year and, in fact for all time.

We celebrate because we know God became human and lived as one of us, experiencing all the same highs and lows, joys and frustrations as we do, and yet remained completely faithful to his heavenly Father. We celebrate this at Christmas, of course, but actually we celebrate this wonderful Truth every Sunday, every day if we spend time with God.

I pray that we can all share the joy of the angels and the peace of the Christ child this Christmas.

Wishing you a joyous Christmas season and a peaceful New Year,

Revd Denise

Invite Someone to Church this Christmas!

Follow the Star Join the Song is this year's Church of England Christmas campaign. As in previous years there are logos and graphics for use in advertising services with the aim of encouraging people to attend a service in church over the Advent and Christmas period. All well and good, but surely the best way to get family and friends to worship in our churches is to invite them. Let them know when our Christmas services are and invite them to come along. Everyone loves singing traditional carols and hearing the story of the birth of Jesus, don't they? Well, at least if not everyone then some! Let's give people the chance to spend some time in worship in the coming weeks. Pray about who you might invite. Ask God to open their ears and hearts, and then just offer that invitation. If they say no, they say no. It can take a good few invitations before people feel able to come to church, but Christmas is a great time to try. We want to share the joy of Christmas and love of God with as many people as possible.

Who will you invite this year?

St George's PCC has agreed to register for Eco Church. Eco Church is an initiative by A Rocha which is a Christian charity whose aim is to 'Care for God's Earth' and one way it does this is through Eco Church. Many churches in this Diocese and Deanery have registered, and quite a few have gained the first award which is Bronze. I hope that the church can work towards achieving this award in the future.

There are a number of categories that we need to look at and report back on. An example of one of the categories is Worship and Teaching, this involves ensuring that creation care is mentioned in our services, not every week, but fairly regularly; another is Buildings, this is a challenge for many churches, but involves looking at how we can make the church more energy efficient.

There are more of these categories for us to work on, but others have done it and so can we.

Is this something you could get involved with? It would be helpful to have a small working party to look into the various Eco Church categories and think about what we could do to become more eco-friendly as a congregation.

You'll find more information about A Rocha here: A Rocha UK – Caring for creation

You may have heard that climate scientists are alarmed at the rise in temperature the earth has experienced this year, and we know the UK is one of the most nature depleted countries in the world, so anything we can do to 'Care for God's Earth' can make a difference.

This is the window the small picture came from in the November magazine. Did you recognise it last time? It's a really interesting choice for a stained-glass window as it depicts St Paul speaking to Agrippa. He is explaining why he has become a disciple of Christ and why he is willing to defend the faith even when he is in chains. You may notice the words at the bottom of the window from the King James Bible, 'Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.' (Acts 26.28) Agrippa is resting his chin in his hand as though he is paying attention to and thinking about what Paul is saying. He doesn't become a Christian as far as we are aware.

I wonder when you (or I, actually!) last tried to persuade someone of the truth of the gospel? What words would you use? What personal experience of God would you share? In 1 Peter 3 we're told that we should be ready to speak about our faith when we're given the chance. It doesn't have to be very eloquent or deeply theological; it just needs to be sincere.

Why not have a think about what you said in the past or what you might say in the future if someone asks you why you go to church?

Rev'd Denise

Dear Everyfurr

It's me Larry! Happy Catmas!! Tee!Hee!Hee!
That's a Larry joke!

Catmas!! Tee!Hee!

I do it because it annoys my mummy no end when people leave Christ out of Christmas. (Xmas... Grrr). I agree really, Jesus is the most important part of Christmas, so he should always be there. Right in the middle. This picture is me in my little igloo, all decorated for the special season. Have you noticed the Holy Family? They aren't hufursons! They are MICE!! Mices are snacks, not Jesus's family! (I think this is a mummy joke). I like to look at them, because they remind me of the story of when Jesus was born. Did you know he was born in a stable? That's a place where animals live. If animals live in stables, I think that means there must have been a cat there too. I hope so, anyway. I'm definitely not going to leave Jesus out of Christmas this year, are you? I'm going to say thank you to God every day for sending his Son Jesus to live with us on earth.

Happy Christmas Everyfurr,

Larry T Catte

The story of 'Silent Night'

This much-loved carol comes from Austria, where it was first sung as Stille Nacht, heilige Nacht on Christmas Eve, 1818. It was written by Father Joseph Mohr, a young priest at St Nicholas parish church, in the village of Oberndorf bei Salzburg. As Christmas 1818 approached, he asked the local schoolmaster, Franz Xaver Gruber, to compose a melody for his carol. Gruber was organist in the nearby village of Arnsdorf, and so was happy to oblige. On Christmas Eve they presented the carol to the church during the midnight mass. The carol went on to become loved world-wide; and the version sung by Bing Crosby is the third best-selling single of all time.
