The Vicar writes

“Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast! Alleluia!”

These words are joyfully proclaimed at the Easter feast - a proclamation of great joy and a pledge of commitment to “keep the feast”.

Last year, we had to keep the Easter feast at home – to find new ways of marking the journey through Holy Week and the promise of Easter differently. Many of us will do so this year too. A small number will meet in church. Last year we were filled with anxiety and uncertainty, this year, whilst hope is on the horizon, many feel the same, and many are weighed down with the grief and loss of the past year.

Yet last year, and this year, and every year since that first Easter morning, the joy of Easter has still been proclaimed. The eternal life-giving message that there is hope in Christ and that life overcomes death is proclaimed triumphantly in so many ways; amidst fanfares of glorious celebration, covertly by those who are forced to worship in secret, tentatively by those who are fearful, quietly by those who sit beside the sick and dying, and uniquely in our own hearts and homes as we recognise its truth in our lives and stories.

And it doesn't end there. Easter lasts for 50 days until Pentecost - it is a whole season for trusting in God's promise and believing that there really is hope for the future. And beyond the 50 days of Eastertide, we rejoice in the gift of the Holy Spirit, poured out upon the church, to enliven, sustain, encourage, and inspire us to proclaim the Gospel of new life in Christ and a new, better future for our communities and our world.

Alleluia! The Lord is risen! Let us keep the feast in whatever way we are able and be confident in God's promises now and in the future.

With prayers for a happy, holy and hope filled Eastertide,
Penny

Kitchen Refurbishment

We are delighted that the kitchen project is completed and are looking forward to being able to use the kitchen for different occasions, including hosting the “George’s Kitchen” local meal delivery project, community lunches, and church and community social events.

The work has included an update to the kitchen electrics, a commercial fridge and freezer, a commercial cooker, new flooring, shelving, a handwashing unit, and new kitchen equipment. At our inspection by Environmental Health at Tameside Council we were awarded a 5 hygiene rating! Volunteers from church and the community have undertaken their Food Hygiene Level Two training and have been awarded with certificates.

We are very grateful for the generous grant from the Ridge Hill Big Local which has enabled this improvement to take place. Thank you to all who have been involved in the kitchen project so far – we look forward to seeing its use increase and develop!

Paws for thought

The start of Eastertide marks the start of my 50 days of fundraising!
We are raising funds which will be split 50/50 between St George's Church and Tameside, Oldham and Glossop MIND who are doing wonderful things (alongside dogs) supporting mental health in our communities.

Entrants have 50 days to complete, and you can decide how far dogs and humans want to go:

- 5000metres (just over 3 miles) (about 100 metres per day)
- 10 miles (about 0.2 miles per day)
- 30 miles (about 0.6 miles per day)
- 50 miles (about 1 mile per day)
- 100 miles (about 2 miles per day)
- 200 miles (about 4 miles per day)
- 300 miles (about 6 miles per day)... or more if you wish!

If you want to choose a different distance, feel free, we want as many dogs and humans to get out and blow away some cobwebs, so please don't be put off. You choose what is right for you. Also, humans are allowed to walk without a dog if they wish. Everyone can join in!

You can sponsor us online via our Easyfundraising donate button at www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/stgeorgeschurchstalybridge/donate - be sure to leave a message of support, or you can give an envelope to church marked "Buddy & buddies sponsored walk".

Huge thanks to those who have already signed up to take part including, Val, Steve, Molly and Daisy, Joyce and Ben, Caroline and Daisy, Lynn and Ava, Alicia and Robbie and the 2 vicars who will be joining me.

There is still time to take part – just be in touch with my PA (pup assistant)
Val for more details and to sign up! pewsheet@yahoo.com

With love to you all,

Buddy

St George, our Patron Saint who isn't English (from Parish Pump)

The English have a patron saint who isn't English, about whom next to nothing is known for sure, and who, just possibly, may not have existed at all. But that didn't stop St George being patriotically invoked in many battles, notably at Agincourt and in the Crusades, and of course it is his cross that adorns the flags of English football fans to this day.

It's most likely that St George was a soldier, a Christian who was martyred for his faith somewhere in Palestine, possibly at Lydda, in the early fourth century. At some point in the early centuries of the Church he became associated with wider military concerns, being regarded as the patron saint of the Byzantine armies. There is no doubt that St George was held as an example of the 'godly soldier', one who served Christ as bravely and truly as he served his king and country.

The story of George and the dragon is of much later date and no one seems to know where it comes from. By the Middle Ages, when George was being honoured in stained glass, the dragon had become an invaluable and invariable visual element, so that for most people the two are inseparable. Pub signs have a lot to answer for here: 'The George and Dragon'.

However, it's probably more profitable to concentrate on his role as a man who witnessed to his faith in the difficult setting of military service, and in the end was martyred for his faithfulness to Christ. The idea of the 'Christian soldier' was, of course, much loved by the Victorian hymn-writers – 'Onward, Christian soldiers!' The soldier needs discipline. The heart of his commitment is to obedience. The battle cannot be avoided nor the enemy appeased. He marches and fights alongside others, and he is loyal to his comrades. In the end, if the battle is won, he receives the garlands of victory, the final reward of those who overcome evil.

St George's Day presents a challenge and an opportunity.

The challenge is to distance the message of his life from the militarism and triumphalism that can easily attach itself to anything connected to soldiers and fighting. The opportunity is to celebrate the ideal of the 'Christian soldier' – one who submits to discipline, sets out to obey God truly, does not avoid the inevitable battle with all that is unjust, wrong and hateful in our world, and marches alongside others fighting the same noble cause.
