The Vicar writes...

Change is beginning to happen now. Spring is emerging ever more determinedly by the day, the numbers of Covid 19 cases are decreasing, the number of those vaccinated is increasing and the sun has even been making more frequent appearances over the past few days! The past weeks of "lockdown" have been extremely challenging but however small and still in the distance it seems now, hope is in sight. We look forward to the days when we can meet together again and fully embrace life and freedom.

One of the wonderful things that spring brings is a reminder of the speed with which the beauty of nature blossoms around us from tiny, seemingly insignificant shoots – from the dark and cold of winter and the hardness of the frozen ground there shoots forth new life and in the blinking of an eye flowers open and leaves unfold and appear on the trees. Birdsong has already picked up a pace as lighter days are heralded by a choir that certainly is still able to sing and praise God and the morning!

In his book, "Candles in the Dark", Rowan Williams writes of the first national "lockdown." He says, "The God who begins the story of his world-shattering life in the midst of creation with that tiny, imperceptible change in the body of Mary, is still a God who works with tiny and hidden changes. In each of us, body and spirit, that same God is working now, so that Christmas and Good Friday and Easter will come alive in us, in ways we can't begin to imagine."

We continue our journey through Lent this March and at the end we enter into Holy Week, once more recalling the days of Jesus' passion, death and resurrection – a journey through days of darkness, hope and new life which promise us transformation and newness of life now and in the world to come.

With prayers and all good wishes,
Penny

Giving thanks for our vaccines!
From the Diocese of Manchester newsletter

The Diocese of Manchester has partnered with Christian Aid to give people an opportunity to give thanks for their Covid-19 vaccine and help others in crisis across the world.

Recognising the deep sense of relief and gratitude experienced by many people after being vaccinated, the two organisations have come together to enable people to pass the blessing on by making a donation to Christian Aid's Coronavirus Appeal.

Funds from the appeal are helping vulnerable communities around the world access soap, water, food and vital health information in the face of the pandemic. Many communities around the world face an uncertain wait for a vaccine as questions remain around the cost and timing of a global vaccine programme.

Christian Aid partners have so far directly helped over half a million people in 27 countries including distributing food packages to nearly 60,000 people struggling to feed their families after losing work during lockdown and the economic downturn.

Going forwards, Christian Aid will support vaccination programmes in communities by providing data on hard-to-reach populations to local health services and by working with trusted community figures to challenge misleading information about the virus and vaccination as well as any stigma faced by those who contract Covid-19.

Christian Aid's Head of Community Fundraising and Public Engagement Chine McDonald said: "The coronavirus pandemic has shown us that none of us are safe, until all of us are safe. It has been amazing to see the speed at which the vaccines have been rolled out in the UK – every jab in someone's arm brings us closer to the end of Covid-19.

"But the reality is that richer countries like ours are getting more access to vaccines, while the poorer countries in which Christian Aid works are left at the back of the queue. As a Christian organisation, we believe that every person is equal in the sight of God and worthy of living lives with dignity, equality and justice.

"We're delighted to work together with the Diocese of Manchester to give people an opportunity to say thanks and help protect our global neighbours while the vaccine is out of reach."

You can donate online here or leave a donation in an envelope marked "Thanks for Our Vaccine" in church

Paws for thought

Spring is definitely here now and its making me feel energetic! Now that the morning are brighter and the sun sets later I get far more playtime in the garden! I'm writing this quickly because the sun is out and I have a new ball to play with - I'm afraid I have to keep my priorities in order.

A message for the dogs of the parish I want to tell you about my exciting plans for Eastertide. I'm taking the lead in a fundraising activity in April and May and I'm encouraging you and your humans to join me! I want to support St George's Church and a charity that helps our human friends (I'm still thinking about which one as there are so many good ones to choose from!) I'm planning the details with churchwarden Val, and we'll have lots more to tell you next month – including details of how to sponsor us, per mile or per paw-step!

A message to humans Please support your canine friends and neighbours in our fundraising endeavour! Everyone is encouraged to join in if they want to, so even if you are a human not owned by a dog but you like walking, you are welcome to join in too! We can all collar our friends and family into sponsoring us too!

The days are becoming brighter all round; there is much to be thankful for and much positivity and hope for the future. I'm looking forward to doing what I can and encouraging others to make a difference – we are in this together! I can't wait to give you all of the details next month... watch this space!

With love to you all,
Buddy

Do you want to fast this Lent?

(Words of Pope Francis 2017)

- Fast from hurting words and say kind words.
- Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.
- Fast from anger and be filled with patience.
- Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.
- Fast from worries and trust in God.
- Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.
- Fast from pressures and be prayerful.
- Fast from bitterness and fill your heart with joy.
- Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.
- Fast from grudges and be reconciled.
- Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

Holy Week this year will be celebrated in church with opportunities for worship online also. Most restrictions will still be in place, therefore services will be small and simple.

The telling of the story of our salvation will continue to be at the centre of all our worship during this most special week.
