

Welcome to St Margaret's, Lowestoft

Sunday 11th July 2021

Our services today:

10am Holy Communion (with organ music)

Our readings this morning:

Amos 7 verses 7 – 15

Ephesians 1 verses 3 – 14

Mark 6 verses 14 - 29

Our services this week:

- Friday: 12 noon Holy Communion
- Sunday: 10am: Holy Communion with music

Looking to the future:

We are still awaiting the guidance from the Church of England, however, following last Monday's announcement from the government:

From July 25th onwards:

- Facemasks will no longer be compulsory in St Margaret's – if you feel happier wearing one, please do so.
- Singing by everybody will resume (though if you feel happier not to sing, still do worship with us).

What a FANTASTIC way to celebrate our patron saint.

Michael will share further thoughts and reflections about this stage of the 'unlocking' next week.

St Margaret's Sunday

This is on July 25th, and we will ALL be able to sing again – ALLELUIA!
Our services to celebrate our patron saint will be:

10am Sung Eucharist

6pm: Choral Evensong – the first event celebrating the 150th anniversary of our organ and our choir.

Tea in the Rectory Garden

In the week running up to St Margaret's Sunday, viz. next week, we are opening the Rectory garden on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday for you to join us for a cuppa (coffee or tea) and a piece of cake. No need to book, just come along one afternoon. (Please note, not Tuesday)

4th Lowestoft (St Margaret's) Cubs

The Cubs are holding a sponsored hike today in aid of a hedgehog care charity (Hedgerows Hedgehogs) and the Lowestoft Food Bank. Charlie Barnard would love you to sponsor him! And its not too late to do so. Please talk with Tina, Keith or Michael after the service. (Charlie says a big "Thank you" to everybody who sponsored him last week)

This pewsheet is sponsored

In loving memory of

Joan Buckley
