

PRIEST: Lord God, you are the light of the world. We follow you knowing you provide us with the light of life. Hear our prayers we bring before you.

READER: Let us pray for Pope Francis as he reminds us, we must learn to see the glory of the Cross by living it, looking on the crucified Jesus, and opening our hearts to him.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: Let us pray for Governments, organisations, and communities as they prepare to introduce plans for tackling Covid this winter. We pray that such measures will keep case numbers down and hospital admissions low.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: As price rises see a record jump in food costs we pray for all those in the UK that are hungry, unable to put food on their table, and living in poverty. Let us remember them this winter and do all we can to support those in our local community that need our help.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response Lord graciously hear us.

READER: Let us pray for those that are unwell and living with chronic pain. May the Holy Spirit infuse them with love, comfort and hope for better days ahead.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We give thanks for the generosity of Parishioners last week at our Autumn Fayre whose good will has enabled us to help those in need in Haiti. We also give thanks for the generous help and assistance of those who organised the Fayre especially their time.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember those who have died recently especially Mary Dunleavy, Martha Sheridan, Catherine Coyle, Cathleen Joyce and Damian Ryan. We also remember those with anniversaries at this time especially, John Francis Morgan, Eileen Bowles, George Harris, Maura Cunningham, Elizabeth Emmeline Milnes, Wladyslaw Garnowski, Timothy Redmond, Phyllis Hanson, Joanne Lesley Field, George (Barry) Jukes, Charles Cassidy, Michael Cahill and all with anniversaries at this time.

(Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

READER: We remember all who are sick, those in hospital and those who are housebound. We remember especially the sick of our own Parish, William Moran, Kath Reidy, Hughie Quinn, John White, Father Fred Sheldon, Dan Doyle, Damian Poole, Kath Clark, Angela and Tony Duffy, Philomena Gallagher, Ken and Doreen Shirley, Chris Jena, Keith Frettsome, Lena Gallagher, Danny Meadows, John Kavanagh, Peter Kavanagh, Kevin McDaid, James Brown, John McCarthy, Sandra Evans, Christopher Edmund Poole, Noreen O'Connor, Molly Saunders, Gillian Jones, and Diane Burgess and our families wherever they may be. (Pause) Lord hear us. Response: Lord graciously hear us.

Let us ask Mary the Mother of the Lord to pray with us: Hail Mary...Now let us pray for a few moments in silence for our own needs and intentions and for those intentions placed in the prayer box.

PRIEST: Heavenly King, we are your servants. We praise and glorify you. Guide us to live happy, healthy lives. Amen.
