

Blacon Beacon

PROJECT MANAGER SOUGHT

Are you friendly, approachable and hard working? Would you like a new opportunity to make a difference? We are looking for someone to build up the work of a new charity, developing a team of volunteers, recruiting members, and establishing systems for supply of stock.

BLACON BEACON are looking for a Project Manager (16 hours pw but with the possibility of upscaling to full-time) – salary £18,000 pro-rata

Blacon Beacon is based at Holy Trinity Church Hall, and has been a major player in the emergency food provision for Blacon during lockdown. We are looking for a self-motivated Manager with excellent customer service skills and proven ability to manage volunteers, who will carry the service forward into the future.
