News and Events

Tea Time in Sisland

From 3-5pm every Sunday in August Sisland church will be serving its annual teas. Can't justify eating cake on a Sunday afternoon? Well why not take a walk to Sisland church and feel that you've earned your sweet treats in a lovely little country church and churchyard!

FISH on 23 August

We will be offering a FISH (Food in School Holidays) lunch in Chedgrave on 23 August. If you can offer to help serve, please have a word with Alison Ball. (01508 528126, email ball880am@btinternet.com)

Wanted—50 generous people

We need to re-print the guide book for Holy Trinity church, for which the text has been updated and good photographs obtained. To cover the cost of printing Val Counter, as Treasurer, is looking for about 50 generous people willing to donate £10. If you can help, please put it in an envelope and drop it in to Val at Avocet, Norwich Road or to David Owen at 4 Market Place.

Many Thanks

Many thanks to all who helped with the recent Open Lunch at Langley with Hardley Village Hall. The event raised a splendid £435 for Hardley church.

Uniform Sale

On 25 August from 10.30 to 11.30am there will be a sale of pre-loved school uniform in St John's Chapel. It would be good to be able to serve tea and coffee at the sale, but we need someone to make it. If you can volunteer to do this please contact Alison Ball on 01508 528126, email ball880am@btinternet.com

Loddon Congregation—

Please Note

The Church in Loddon Away Day will be on Saturday October 22nd and will be a day for the whole congregation to gather together to determine the way forward for the church in Loddon. Clearly the future of the church is important to everyone, so it is hoped that everyone will put the date in their diary. Venue and timings to follow.

Certain Sermons on Display

The new exhibition at Norwich Cathedral is inspired by Elizabeth I's visit to Norwich in 1578. One of the displays features books which Elizabeth I required parishes to possess, one of these being 'Certain Sermons and Homilies'. Loddon's copy, on deposit in Norwich Cathedral Library, is one of the earlier copies in the library, and has therefore been selected for the exhibition, which will run until 27 October.
