News and Events

Loddon's Services

It's after Remembrance Sunday, so Loddon's services are now in St John's Chapel.

Fayre Items Wanted

Still needed for Loddon's Christmas Fayre next Saturday are: bottles for the tombola; jams, chutneys and jellies; good condition jewellery, Christmas decorations or candles and any Christmas handicrafts. Hazel Catchpole has plenty of empty baskets if you want one to fill for her tombola. In particular Val Counter needs cakes and Tricia Bell needs mince pies. Please Tricia Bell (528433) if you can help with any of these.

Open House

This year's Loddon & Chedgrave Victorian Evening will be on 10 December, and as usual we will be running Open House in Holy Trinity and St John's. If you would like a stall to fundraise for charity (or for the church) or you want to publicise a community group, please let Nina Owen know. (01508 522993, email theroamingfenlander@gmail.com). Also, if you'd be willing to have a stall for the Church in Loddon, please speak to Nina or to Val Counter.

Carols on St Nicholas Eve

This year Loddon's carol service will herald the beginning of Advent and the eve of St Nicholas as it will be on 5 December. It's the first of this year's carol services so do come along to Holy Trinity at 6.30pm for some favourite carols of Advent and Christmas.

Reflections for Advent

Last year the Diocese produced a very thoughtful digital Advent Calendar which was put together by Susanna Gunner. Happily there will be a daily reflection throughout Advent again this year, which you can subscribe to by email so it will arrive in your inbox. To sign up, go to www.DofN.org/advent.

Avoid a Clash

Now is the time of year when we start thinking about future events or fundraisers. If you know of anything in the pipeline, please send details to the News in good time so we all know what's going on. And because we're churches who like to support each other, do try to avoid serious clashes of dates and times if at all possible!

It's Raining Prayers

Supporting people through prayer is one of the best things we can do, and it doesn't involve going anywhere special or meeting with people unless we want to. In the Chet Valley we have a Prayer Shower where urgent or sudden prayer needs are passed to those who have signed up as being willing to pray. The needs can be practical, medical, emotional or anything else, and can be for yourself or someone you know, wherever they might be. If you would like to join in and pray (at home, in your own time) contact Ros Hoffmann (details overleaf, under Urgent Prayers). If you know of someone who needs prayer, get in touch with Ros, and she will pass it on to those who are willing to pray.
