

Daily Morning Prayer

Find a quiet place and allow enough time so as not to be rushed and not to cut short the time of listening. Sit for a few moments and take time to relax – take a couple of deep breaths – light a candle or turn on some quiet music or find a picture. We come from scattered lives to meet with God. Let us recognise God's presence with us now.

When you are ready please use this form of Morning Prayer.

Keep a short silence, still your heart.

As God's people we have gathered;
let us worship God now together,
across the miles yet joined.
Let us pray:

Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful people,
and kindle in us the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

In the light of Jesus, let us examine ourselves and confess our sins.

Keep a short silence, leave your sins at foot of the cross .

Father, we have sinned against heaven and against you.
We are not worthy to be called your children.
We turn to you again,
have mercy on us,
bring us back to yourself as those who once were dead but now have life through Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the Father forgive us by the death of the Son, and strengthen us to live in the power of the Spirit all our days. Amen.

The psalm for the day from the list ending with

Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

The reading from the list (any version of the Bible is appropriate – 2 different ones to compare the translations would be good if you can) followed by a short time of meditation on the reading.

Ask yourself one of the following questions about the reading:

Does this reflect anything which is happening to me at this time?

Does this reflect what is happening in the world today?

Would I have reacted in the same way as those who were there at the time?

Did this passage strike me as interesting, profound, difficult to understand or enlightening?

We affirm our faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God:

Though he was divine,
he did not cling to equality with God,
but made himself nothing.
Taking the form of a slave,
he was born in human likeness.
He humbled himself and was obedient to death,
even the death of the cross.
Therefore, God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:
that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,
and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect for the day from the list below.

Prayer for Church growth

God of Mission
who alone brings growth to your Church, send your Holy Spirit to give
vision to our planning,
wisdom to our actions,
and power to our witness.
Help our church to grow in numbers,
in spiritual commitment to you,
and in service to our community,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord's Prayer any version you feel appropriate.

We intercede for others in the quiet of our hearts.
Lord, meet us in the silence, and hear our prayer.

Your own prayers from items on the news, the prayers for the sick, the prayers for the deceased and any prayers you are moved to make.

A short time of listening

Faithful God, may we who share in this time of worship glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
our salvation and hope,
who reigns as Lord now and forever.
Fill us, Good Lord with your Spirit of love;
and as you have fed us with your presence,
so, make us one in heart and mind,
in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord
Thanks be to God.

that on the last day,

Thanks to The Bible Reading Fellowship New Daylight for the readings. If you would like to know more about Bible Reading Fellowship please contact Gill. There are 3 booklets a year with comments on each day's reading and a prayer or thought of the day at the end. There are also other formats. You can find these online at brf.org.uk if you would like to see them. There are also copies of the notes to download if you prefer.
