From Faith to Faith In The Last Days – Pt.34

Introduction

In these days, we need to fully grasp and embrace the message of faith, so that we remain strong and meet the challenges of our time. God so loves us and He does not want us to fail. 1 Cor. 15:57, 58. Often God's people want to know what they can legitimately believe God for....

We are being prepared for a time of great harvest, a time of great increase and a time of great deliverance. We need to be ready to handle the great opportunity that will come and not 'blow it.' The Old Testament is full of the cycle of blessing, corruption, decline, apostasy, hard times, repentance and restoration. God wants a people who learn to walk with Him humbly and yet powerfully so that He might reveal His love and power to a broken world. What will you do with great increase, great success, and great influence?

The Throne of Grace – Heb. 4:16; Rev. 11:19; Heb. 8:5; 9:24

Today, we are excited about the coming harvest, supernatural finances and provision, new opportunities to reach the Lost, releasing the miraculous to a suffering world...readied by the humbling that we need, in order to handle the exaltation necessary. Isa. 2:2,3 NLT Eph. 3:8-10. "...prospered until..." Moses second song'—Deut. 31:19-22...prophetic exhortation. 2 Chron.26:14-16. God is preparing us now, for great increase...we need to know how to 'live with it in wisdom.' Poverty-struck Israel, left Egypt, laden with gold, silver, and "Armani" Ex. 12:35, 36. Who would have thought it? The pandemic is a preparation of the harvest, a preparation of the church to reap and retain the harvest.

Kings and Priests – Rev. 1:6 NKJV; Rev. 5:10 NKJV; Rom. 5:17; Lk.10:17,18

There are many different descriptions of the believer's identity in the Bible. These God-made descriptions, represent the kind of person we have become in Christ, as a new believer. We make the daily decision to operate out of these descriptions or we choose to live in the mentality and operation of our previous, sin-cursed, world-shaped, Satan-influenced identity. In this “covid” season, we see that God is emphasising our “priesthood,” so that we can safely handle our “kingship” identity. How is our “priesthood” developing in prayer, thanksgiving, intercession, praise and rejoicing? Our ‘priesthood’ takes us ‘there’ to the throne of grace and our ‘kingship,’ operates from ‘there.’ We have to go “up,” in order to reign “over.” We often may have more of a consciousness of our ‘weakness’ and our ‘human’ limitation, rather than our ‘strength’ and our spiritual ‘authority.’ 1 Pet. 5:8-12.

**In this global pandemic test and all of its other tests, we recognise that God is training us on how to ‘walk through’ all the greater tests that will come on this world, in the years to come. Acts 14:22; Ps.54:7; 2 Cor. 4:17. Isa. 51:6 – perspective changes position, dynamically, operationally, and functionally. Rom. 5:2. All too often we are “under” the circumstances, by virtue of our perspective or outlook.

When we look up, we are then in a position to look down at our circumstances. As long as you are “looking down,” you get ‘down’ in yourself and your emotions. From your new position, you are meant to speak with authority to: various “things,” both literal and figurative or both natural and spiritual. Words are powerful—many do not realise how powerful words really are, yet every day, words heal, words destroy, words build, and words divide. Words create, words make things disappear, words call to life and words call to war. A good question to ask is, “How is my word-life?”

When you speak with authority, the authority that God has given you, Luke 10:19, you are to speak to things, not about things. Your ‘prayer-words’ are not meant to be assumptive, but directive. You can pray/speak words, for example, ‘Lord, I thank you that the pain goes away.’ However, this kind of prayer is not, the positional prayer of authority, that you pray, when you see yourself above something, commanding it to change!

*God has made you to be a ‘spiritual commander,’ to command with authority, conditions that are contrary, to comply with your words! Isa. 51:16; Jer. 1:9; Jer. 5:14; Mk. 11:23 “...believes that ‘what he says will happen,’ it will be done for him.”

If you hold such a position of authority and speak such words of authority and have such provisions of supply and favour, what vaccine or conspiracy or disease, on this earth, is greater than who you have become, by grace?

Let us practice today, who we are, now, aloud!

- Command our new building to come now in Jesus Name!
- Command your new job to come now in Jesus Name!
- Command your children to come back to Jesus in Jesus Name!
- Command the spirits attacking your family to go in Jesus Name!
- Command health to come into the body of ____ in Jesus’ Name!

If you do not believe you have a position of authority, and you do not believe you have ‘words of authority,’ the words you will speak will be at best useless and worthless and at worst destructive and divisive.— dividing you from the power of God and dividing others from its power as well.

Assignment: Take some time to prayerfully consider how God wants you to be more of a giver—giving Him to others in witness, giving more of your time and ability to advance the Church and the Kingdom, giving more of your financial resources to advance His mission in the earth. Then do whatever He is saying.
