Church Flowers – Volunteers needed

After many successful years, regrettably, St Mary's Flower Guild has been disbanded. A few of us have got together and would like to continue to put fresh flowers on the Altar and to arrange the flowers for the Christian festivals. We ask for a few hours of time. For those who are interested, all you need is a love of flowers and a tiny bit of creativity! I am happy to coordinate for the time being but would appreciate it if someone could take over this role. as in my case the 'spirit is willing but the flesh is weak!' We would appreciate donations of flowers for the altar, I have put a form on the church noticeboard so that those who would like to donate can complete. Betty Griffin

For prayer and reflection this week:

We pray for Holy Rood House Chaplain/Executive Director especially for Reverend Elizabeth Baxter. Please join their thanksgiving as they celebrate 28 years of healing ministry with the purchase of the house and gardens. Pray for their therapeutic work, residential respite from long Covid, caring for carers, support of clergy, spiritual accompaniment into a new normal, and for all who work to make this possible.

We also pray for The Scottish Episcopal Church.

Those preparing for marriage:

Emma Hanlon & James Burton, Nicola Waters & Andrew Dawson and Caroline Grace & Christopher Herman.

We pray Joseph James Bernstone who is being baptised here today asking that God will bless him and his family as they take their first steps on their journey of faith.

Those seeking comfort and healing, or who have requested prayer: We pray for Amy Rainbow and family, Diana Wilson, Teresa Burton, Brian Johnson and Alison Colombi.

Years Mind: We remember Vernon Bowles, Annie Meynell, Gwyneth Jones, Robert Austin, James Gendle, Bernard Henry, John Cardwell, Ann Brammer, Elsie Richardson, Betty Pearce, Robert Dodds, Yvonne Thompson, Eileen Chapman, John Nelson, Constance Harrison, Harold Cottam and Thomas Copeman with thanksgiving.

May all whom we remember rest in peace and rise in glory!
