Mary-Lou's Farewell Service

Friday 25 June – 7 pm – Bicton - Eucharist

We are now almost fully-booked! Do contact your warden if you would like a place- if there are none left, we will also hold a waiting list. Regardless of the national situation on the 25th June, we will keep to the current social distancing regulations for this service and encourage those who are not there in person to use the livestream. The link is:

Also, as part of the ongoing transition, Mary-Lou's contact details have now been removed from the top of the Loop- please choose one of us instead!

Mary-Lou writes ...

As many of you already know, I'm now on annual leave in the run up to my retirement, and Hannah is now acting priest in charge until her licensing next month.

I'm so thankful and touched by the messages and kindnesses I've already received, especially for my last Sunday @ Six worship with our online community! Allan and I send you our love and thoughts, as we prepare for our move – it has been a wonderful almost six years and we will miss Severn Loop so much. But it's not over just yet! We look forward to seeing as many of you as we can accommodate at Bicton on 25 June in the evening.

For now, every blessing ~

Mary-Lou x

PS Many of you have asked for our new address – slips will appear in the churches for those of you who'd like to have it!
