Sunday 20th December 2020

Eternal God, as Mary waited for the birth of your Son, so we wait for his coming in glory; bring us through the birth pangs of this present age to see, with her, our great salvation in Jesus Christ our Lord.

St Paul's 'three ways'... in church... on-line... at home...

Walking into Christmas – come and visit our crib in St Paul's

Sunday 20th December 3-5pm
Monday 21st December 5-7pm
Tuesday 22nd December 5-7pm

Come and hear the story of Christmas and see the Christmas trees and crib. Walk through the church in your church socially distanced in household groupings. Dress up as your favourite nativity character if you like!

Carol Service on YouTube

Do watch our virtual carol service on our YouTube Channel - why not arrange to watch as a household, and share the link with your family and friends. Thank you to all those who contributed to readings and music – see who you can spot!

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day

Sadly we can't hold our popular Crib service on Christmas Eve this year. Do come and visit our crib on the dates listed above. We are holding a Midnight Communion service on Christmas Eve starting at 11.30pm in church – it's rather different from usual, with social distancing and no congregational singing but do join us in church (needs to be booked) or on-line. To book places contact office@speh.org.uk with names and contact details and indicating who is in the same household/bubble. The service will be streamed on our YouTube channel St Paul's Egham Hythe.

On Christmas morning we'll be gathering at 10am on Zoom for a short Christmas celebration service – why not get different members of your family to log in and join. Contact office@speh.org.uk to book in and get the joining code if you've not been to our zoom gatherings before.

On Sunday 27th our 10am zoom worship will broadcast an All Age service produced by the Diocese of Guildford. There's no 12 noon Communion in church that day.
