Remembrance Parade Service Our Remembrance Sunday service with the Uniformed groups is at 10.50 am this Sunday 14th November in church. There is no need to book but our Covid protocols for this popular service mean that the capacity inside the church is more limited than usual. Standing room outside the church will also be available, and the service will also be streamed. Please do not attend if you are unwell. Please use the hand sanitiser provided at the entrances to the building, and we're encouraging the use of face masks for this service.

Congratulations to Annie and James on the safe arrival of a beautiful baby boy born Monday 8th November at 12.15pm and to proud grandparents, Sue and Malcolm. Welcome to the world Isaiah Arthur!

We also need some more welcomers for our services – particularly in the lead up to Christmas - contact Christine or the office for more information.
