

Questions for Life Groups – Romans 6:15-23

1. Chris said, “The gospel is not merely a transaction producing forgiveness but a transformation producing a whole new life.” What’s your reaction to that and what are the four things that make up this new life?
2. What do you think of the idea of people being enslaved by something they’ve given themselves to pursue?
3. Why do you think we have such a strong tendency to turn Jesus into our servant (please get me...) rather than our master?
4. A long time ago a man called Tertullian said “Just as Jesus was crucified between two criminals so the gospel is ever crucified between two errors”. Legalism is one error, what is the other?
5. Which of the errors does your own heart lean towards and which do you think is most prominent in the church (at large) today?
6. Was there anything in this sermon that you hadn’t heard or thought of before?
7. Explain in your own words what you think Martin Luther meant when he said: “Salvation is by faith alone but the faith that saves is never alone.”
