Covid -19 Benefice Diary

May and June 2021

From the Rector

We are now emerging from the current lock-down and resumed our services in Stow at 12.00noon on Easter Sunday. We have continued this pattern throughout April and plan to be more ambitious in May and June. The intention is to resume services in the village churches on at least one occasion each month at their usual time of 9.30am.

We will also have two opportunities to meet together as a Benefice. On May 9th, we will pray for the land and water that sustain us on Rogation Sunday. We will meet in the Pound outside Condicote Church at 10.00am. May 23rd is Pentecost, and the Archdeacon of Cheltenham will celebrate at preach at Stow for us all at 11.00am. This service will be live-streamed and will be an alternative on-line experience to our Zoom gatherings which are continuing as well.

With best wishes, Martin
