Sharing God's love through worship, fellowship and service

First Reading: Numbers 6: 22-27

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying 'Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, "Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to them, The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace." So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.'

Second Reading: Galatians 4: 4-7

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!' So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 2: 15-21

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, 'Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.' So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them. After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel.

Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal God, whose incarnate Son was given the Name of Saviour: grant that we who have shared in this sacrament of our salvation may live out our years in the power of the Name above all other names, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Queen's Green Canopy (QGC)
In memory of her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, a flowering cherry tree (Prunus Kanzan) will be planted in the northeast corner of the church grounds, near Prince Charles Road. The PCC hopes that a reasonably mature tree will be professionally planted, marked with an approved QGC plaque, and blessed on 15th January. If you wish to make a donation towards the estimated £900 cost of this, please send your payment to St James Parochial Church Council (account number 04716787, sort code 56-00-49, reference 'The Queen').
