THE SOLEMNITY OF THE
MOST HOLY & UNDIVIDED TRINITY
(YEAR C)

12 JUNE 2022

Welcome to All Saints' on this Trinity Sunday. With Covid-19 not completely gone, we still need to take care of ourselves and of everyone else. Our post-pandemic arrangements are now in operation:

- a) The main door of All Saints' is open (as in pre-pandemic days!).
- b) Hand-sanitiser continues to be available at the North Door, which is also open for use.
- c) Face-coverings are not mandatory, but if you wish to wear a face-covering in church, we are all entirely happy about that. What matters is that you are here to-day.
- d) We need to recruit some further welcomers, so that there are two available at the main door. Have a word with one of the Wardens, if you could assist with this important ministry, especially to any new-comers or visitors.
- e) Try to leave a gap between your neighbour by sitting on your own or with members of your household.
- f) Sing in a normal conversational tone.
- g) We take the collection as usual; those who send their money through the bank each week/month are invited to use one of the small white/purple rectangular cards to place into the collection basket as it passes.
- h) The chalice is now offered at the Eucharist to communicants wishing to receive it.
- i) Remember that, if you have tested positive for Covid-19, you need to check the Government guidelines to be sure about what to do next.

To-day's reflection: This Sunday is all about the Divine Community; in other words, the way in which God is, in himself, a communion of love, namely: Father, Son and Spirit, distinct, yet perfectly united: three persons, one God. We hear of the perfect union between Father and Son, revealed in the mysterious poem of the first reading, where the Son is Wisdom joining the Father in the act of creation. This union bears fruit in the Spirit, who pours this perfect love into our hearts, so that we may imitate the Communion of Love by living together and hoping and praying for our place within the Divine Community.

HYMNS AT 10 O'CLOCK (NEH)

Procession:	146
Offertory:	410
Communion:	145
Communion:	358
Recessional:	394

Introit: Blessed be God the Father and his only begotten Son and the Holy Spirit: for he has shown that he loves us.

Collect: Let us pray (to the one God, Father, Son & Spirit, that our lives may bear witness to our faith): Father, you sent your Word to bring us truth and your Spirit to make us holy. Through them, we come to know the mystery of your life. Help us to worship you, one God in three Persons, by proclaiming and living our faith in you. Grant this though our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

TO-DAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

A reading from the Book of Proverbs (8:22-31): Before the earth came into being, Wisdom was born.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud: The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The Response in the Psalm (8) is: How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

A reading from the letter of S Paul to the Romans (5:1-5): To God, through Christ, in the love poured out by the Spirit.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was and who is to come.

Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John (16:12-15): Everything the Father has is mine; all the Spirit tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Jesus said: 'I still have many things to say to you, but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself, but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: 'All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'
