

Felling Male Voice Choir
Director of Music
Mark Edwards M. Mus.

IF YOU LIKE SINGING AND YOU'RE A FELLA, THIS IS FOR YOU IT'LL DO YOU GOOD!

To all men. (Ladies, if you have a man you'd like to get rid of for a couple of hours per week, this is for you.)

Felling Male Voice Choir is your local Male Voice Choir and is 100 years old this year.

The choir has performed nationally and internationally over the years and is celebrating its 100th Birthday with a Centenary Celebrity Concert in Sage Gateshead in October. Guests include Kitty Whately, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Joseph Middleton and the compere is Colin Briggs lately of BBC "Look North."

We would love as many men as possible to join us to help celebrate.
THIS MEANS YOU!

The choir is itself a registered charity and each year chooses a local charity to support.

This year, it's Gateshead Food Bank.
