DEATH IS DEAD!

DEAD MAN

LIVES!

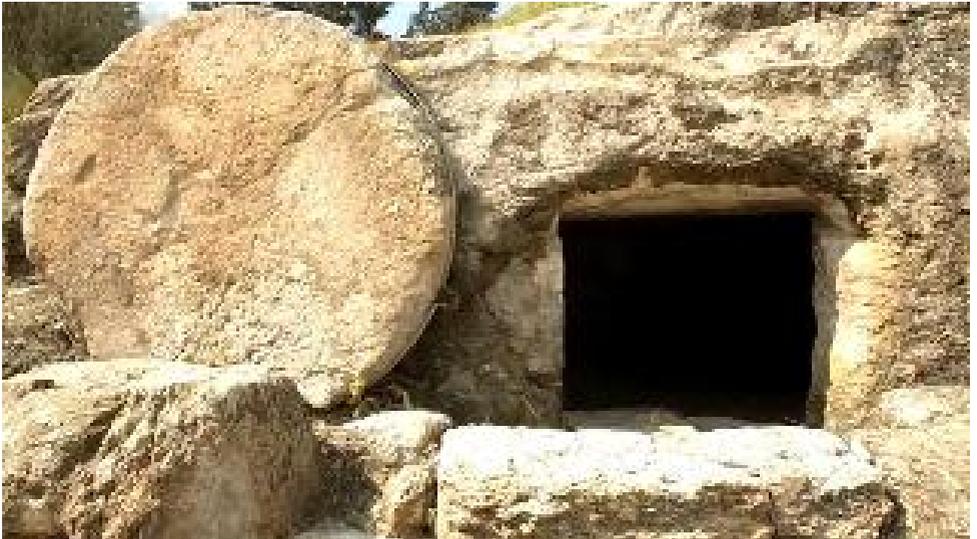

Jerusalem (Sunday) - This troubled city seethes with rumour and counter-rumour. What began as a routine execution on Friday has backfired on the Roman and Jewish authorities with report after report coming in of personal sightings of the dead man. His death was spectacular in the eerie darkness of a full solar eclipse, climaxed by heavy earth tremors, and the tearing of the Temple curtain shielding the holy of holies from the public. The officer on duty was heard to exclaim, “For sure, he was the SON of GOD”.

We have come to expect surprises of this man in the last few years. But this final miracle has set the city in an uproar. Jesus of Nazareth has come back from the dead!

His tomb is empty -

BUT WHO MOVED THE STONE??

FROM THE RECTORY

This is a question every thinking person needs to ask. There are only a limited number of candidates.

1. The Roman authorities

The Romans had Jesus put to death. Pilate knew that Jesus was innocent of any crime, but was persuaded by the Jewish leaders that Jesus alive was a risk to public order and hence his career.

2. The Jewish authorities

They saw Jesus as a threat to their authority.

Both these groups wanted Jesus dead and staying dead. They wanted to stop any possible rumours of resurrection hence the guard on the tomb. If either the Jewish or Roman authorities had stolen the body, they would have produced it as soon as the stories went round claiming He was risen.

3. Grave robbers

There was no motive here. Jesus was buried with no items of value worth stealing. Moreover, grave robbers had neither means or opportunity as the tomb was guarded by Roman soldiers.

4. The disciples

Jesus' disciples had witnessed their master suffering an agonising death. They were devastated and terrified. They did not have the capability to steal a body from a tomb guarded by experienced Roman soldiers.

Most significant of all is the fact that each of the remaining 11 disciples, except one, was martyred for their unwavering faith that Jesus of Nazareth had risen from the dead and was alive. Moreover, they claimed to have been witnesses of that earth-shattering miracle and to have actually met the risen Jesus.

And ever since that first Easter Day in 30 AD, billions of Christians have themselves borne witness to the truth of Jesus' resurrection. They claim to have met the Risen Jesus and experience his love and transforming power in their own daily lives. They testify to the joy of forgiveness and the assurance of everlasting life through the death and resurrection of this same Jesus.

Easter is always a time of joy and the celebration of new life. But the Christian Easter is not about bunnies, eggs and lambs but about a new start with Jesus Christ our creator and redeemer – a daily journey with the one who loves us more than we can possibly imagine and longs for us daily to become more like Him. We are more than ever aware of the uncertainties and sufferings of this life. But in the strength of the One who conquered death, we can go forward, knowing that this is His world for which He gave up His life.

You may like to reflect and pray about the words of this beautiful Easter hymn:

Death is dead, love has won!

See, what a morning, gloriously bright
With the dawning of hope in Jerusalem
Folded the grave-clothes, tomb filled with light
As the angels announce, "Christ is risen!"
See God's salvation plan
Wrought in love, borne in pain, paid in sacrifice

Fulfilled in Christ, the Man
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!
See Mary weeping, "Where is He laid?"
As in sorrow, she turns from the empty tomb
Hears a voice speaking, calling her name
It's the Master, the Lord raised to life again!
This voice that spans the years
Speaking life, stirring hope, bringing peace to us
Will sound 'til He appears
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!
One with the Father, Ancient of Days
Through the Spirit who clothes faith with certainty
Honour and blessing, glory and praise
To the King crowned with pow'r and authority!
And we are raised with Him
Death is dead, love has won, Christ has conquered
And we shall reign with Him
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!
And we are raised with Him
Death is dead, love has won, Christ has conquered
And we shall reign with Him
For He lives, Christ is risen from the dead!

With prayers and best wishes

A Prayer for Easter Time

The veil of darkness

Transformed to the brightest light.

The most dreadful end

Became the most beautiful beginning.

The depths of despair Fade to reveal hope everlasting.

The curse of death Defeated by eternal life.

Zoom Light Party – 14 February

We haven't been able to have any Family Church services since October, apart from the Christingle in December. We had been planning to have the Light Party in November, which was then postponed until January and finally happened on Zoom on 14 February! After the success of moving the 10:30 onto Zoom, we decided to try it for Family Church. We had 27 families joining in, which was 42 children and 22 adults thinking about Jesus as the Light of the World, and what that means. We managed to keep most of the Family Church elements – crafts, songs, prayer activities, film clips and tasty treats!

We delivered packs to all registered families which contained almost everything they needed for the event, which meant we were able to make jam jar candle holders, hope sunshines and we used glow sticks for our prayers. There were things we could have improved, of course, which we will work on if we do this again! 100% of the people who filled in our response form said they would come to Zoom Family Church again, which is a great encouragement.

But what did the children think?

I enjoyed singing and dancing along to My Lighthouse

I enjoyed making different things

I liked the glow sticks and the candle/jar craft

I was so excited about the delivery from Liz and couldn't believe it had sweets in too!

I enjoyed...

Endeavour Class - Jesus the Teacher

Endeavour have been studying the parables of Jesus and how he used these stories to become a great teacher. We explored a wide variety of parables - some familiar and some new. As part of this, Mrs Bowland talked us through The Beatitudes which were part of Jesus' teaching during the Sermon on the Mount. We explored what Jesus teaches us about life with God.

We thought

Jesus teaches us:

- God will always walk with us.
- We need to love one another as God loves us.
- Kindness to others and ourselves is key.

Some of us wrote our own, modern version

St Michael's Flower Club

The flower club decorates the church, funded by contributions from sponsors, on a weekly basis.

During 2020 because of the virus the church was locked for Easter and months afterwards. On re-opening we decorated on a weekly basis. Many thanks again to all the sponsors.

All was in place for the Harvest Service. A huge thank you to Mr and Mrs Swarbrick who have provided the bread sheaf for many years. Fruit and vegetables were donated by Wood's Farm Shop, Burney's and Gores. After the Sunday Service baskets were made up and delivered to local people unable to attend (more so this year because of the virus). Tins, cans and dried food went to the food bank and all the remaining fruit and vegetables went to the St Catherine's Hospice kitchens.

Poppies were used inside and out for the Remembrance service and were left in place longer, enabling more people to appreciate them.

Anyone fancy knitting some more poppies? These are placed outside the church (we have over a thousand already) along the pathways, but we would like to cover more of the borders to the war memorial.

Knitting instructions will be left by the church door- if you can cast on and cast off you can knit a poppy! If you are more creative how about crochet or hand crafted in any way?

At Christmas, instead of all working together in church finishing off with mince pie and tea, the windows had to be decorated separately.

Thanks to Mrs Ball for the beautiful door wreath.

The flower fund provided roses for the All Saints Commemorative Service and donated money towards the audio equipment.

Many thanks to Jean Martland and Joan Wilson for the temporary running of our accounts due to the sad departing of our dear friend Pearl who had been treasurer for many years. Barbara Wood kindly offered to take on this role as from January this year. She has plans to streamline the books; any sponsors who would like to pay direct please contact her on 07745 208617.

Despite the virus our aim has been to keep the church welcoming in the presence of the Lord.

The Easter rota and beyond is:

- Sunday 18th April: Sponsor Mrs E. Houghton. Arranger Gillian
- Sunday 25th April: Sponsor Mrs Maxfield. Arranger Lisa

From the Parish Registers

The Departed – “As in Adam all die, so in Christ may all be made alive”

We give thanks for the life of Barbara Clair McManmon, aged 82 of Walmer Bridge, whose ashes were interred in the churchyard on 21st December 2020.

Prayers in times of trouble

Keep the Church faithful when troubles come...

Give your people grace to ask not just for freedom from suffering but strength to endure... Help us to care for others and to comfort their distress by the grace that reveals the mystery of love through suffering... Give to us that strength and understanding, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Have pity on the troubles of the world, especially at this time through this pandemic. Give to all people true compassion for suffering and the will to work for its relief, in Jesus' name.

Amen.

HYMN OF THE MONTH

DEAR LORD AND FATHER OF MANKIND Hymn No. 144

Words and music: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)

Music: Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918): Repton

*Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways!
Re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper rev'ence praise,
In deeper rev'ence praise.*

*In simple trust like theirs who heard,
beside the Syrian sea,
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word,
rise up and follow thee,
rise up and follow thee.*

*Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind and fire,
O still small voice of calm!
O still small voice of calm.*

Who would have thought that this great hymn was extracted from a poem all about a hallucinogenic drug made from an Indian plant called SOMA mixed in a drink and used in early religious rituals to create a state of frenzy. John Greenleaf Whittier was not a follower of these practices; in fact he was an American Quaker who wrote a poem called “The Brewing of Soma” to show his dislike of over enthusiastic Christianity, with its use of incense and music to bring on a trance-like state. The words of the poem (which can be found on the internet) which follow “Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways” are as follows:

In sensual transports wild as vain
We brew in many a Christian fane
The heathen Soma still!

Written by a Quaker who was used to worshipping God in the calm silence of the meeting house, his writing of the poem “The Brewing of Soma” was a direct plea to “forgive our foolish ways and re-clothe us in our rightful mind”. He was calling Christians back to simple pure worship.

Whittier was brought up as a Quaker and was a descendant of the “Pilgrim Fathers”. The son of a farmer, he made his living as a journalist who wrote poetry and was a passionate abolitionist all through his adult life. He was credited as being a fine hymn writer but never wrote a hymn though many hymns have been drawn from his poetry. The great hymn writer, William Garrett Horder, saw the potential of the verses of the poem and adapted them into the hymn we have come to love so much and included it into his 1884 Congregational Hymn Book.

In the 2007 film Atonement which was based on a novel by Ian McKewan, a choir of exhausted soldiers in a bandstand on the beach at Dunkirk sang the hymn ‘Dear Lord and Father of Mankind’ and won an Academy Award for “best score”.

There is so much light and shade in this hymn which takes us from Galilee to the Syrian sea and to the beauty of His peace, and the still small voice of calm. What a wonderful hymn to sing.

St James the Least of All

On the best way to run a church council meeting

The Rectory

St. James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren

Thank you for inviting me to speak at your church council yesterday.

I never realised how much technology is needed these days just to discuss church matters. It seemed that everyone had brought their laptop, so they could refer to all the diocesan briefing documents and reports that you mentioned. I've been in the diocese 40 years and have never heard of most of those papers. But then I find it too easy to delete the diocesan mailings, unread, with a click of my mouse.

Our church meetings are far more traditional. Since the church floor seems to have been carved out of permafrost, our meetings circulate round members' houses. This introduces a nice element of competition, as each host tries to outdo the previous one in the baking of cakes. Meetings at Colonel Drinkwater's - a more inappropriate name one cannot imagine - are the shortest, since we are always promised wine once the meeting is over. It is remarkable how unanimity is achieved on every subject within minutes, and nothing appears under "any other business".

Mrs Eddington never troubles us with minutes, largely because she can rarely read the notes she takes. She just shares with us whatever she can decipher at our next meeting. Last month, she accidentally brought her shopping list instead, and so read that out. There followed a lively discussion on whether carrots from our local shop were better than those at the supermarket. When it was found out she intended to use them in a venison casserole, endless recipes were keenly debated.

We always leave our church meetings well fed, up to date with village gossip, and totally untroubled by any church council business. And the lack of any minutes ensures that I can then make all the decisions myself, between meetings. I think you will find our system has much to be commended.

Your loving uncle,
Eustace

Smile Lines

In order to keep a true perspective of one's importance, everyone should have a dog to worship him and a cat to ignore him.

The trouble with doing something right the first time is that nobody appreciates how difficult it was.

The most effective way to remember your wife's birthday is to forget it once.

True story

My curate friend had to preach his first-ever Easter sermon, and was very nervous about it. However, he prepared hard, and when Easter day came, he strode into the pulpit and thundered through his sermon, only to crash at the closing line. He pounded the pulpit and shouted: "Yes...it is all true! Jesus rose...and then He died again! Hallelujah!"

Breaking News

A spokesman for Nestlé has confirmed that a night shift worker has been crushed beneath a case of chocolate that fell 30 feet from storage racking. He is said to have called for help repeatedly but every time he shouted 'The Milky Bars are on me' his colleagues just cheered. No further information is available at this time.
