one God, one glory.
Amen

Post Communion Collect

Stir up, O Lord,
the wills of your faithful people;
that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works, may by

Introducing myself...

I was ordained ten years ago at Llandaff Cathedral and served as Curate in the Parish of Llantrisant and then since 2014 serving as Priest in Charge of the parishes of Sully and Wenvoe with St Lythans, parishes in the Vale of Glamorgan, situated between Penarth and Barry.

This last ten years was something of a return to Wales having been born and brought up in Neath, home of the Welsh All Blacks and where my mother still lives. Having moved to London at 18 for university and college I then had a career in stage management working on productions in the West End, National Theatre, Royal Shakespeare Company and latterly with Birmingham Royal Ballet. I met my wife Sheonagh whilst working at Greenwich Theatre who was also a stage manager.

We married in 1988 setting up our family home in Stratford-upon-Avon and have been blessed with two daughters Rebecca and Helen; Rebecca is an actor in London and Helen one of the Sisters in the A & E Department at Bristol Children's Hospital.

We are looking forward to coming to Worle to getting to know you all and to continuing our Ministry with you all.
