Stations of Light Project

For more details, contact: Jenny.owen@st-chads.halton.sch.uk

What is it? St Chad's Catholic and Church of England High School Runcorn recently ran a workshop in school for local churches. Called Stations of Light, the project was for anyone from local churches to work alongside students in the school art rooms. The workshop ran from 10 -4pm with the aim of creating paintings to form a modern Stations of Light for school –that is the appearances of Christ from resurrection to Pentecost.

Suitable for age group: anybody aged 12 plus, families and adults were welcome

Resources needed: Chaplains Jenny Owen and Niall Hammond said you would need someone confident to lead the workshop along with canvas and paint, some resources to inspire, lots of reassurance and lots of cake!

Good things and things you would change:

Chaplain Jenny says, "People came, some old friends some new which was great. The whole project was finished on the day and the follow up was an evening worship event based on icons open to all the churches. Best of all, faith conversations happened."
