

Reflection for 8th May 2020 by Revd Malcolm Wainwright.

Looking for the Risen Christ in the darkness...

'The unknown can be frightening, but when we immerse ourselves in the presence of the Lord, we can know him in it. His love takes away our fear. When we next take a step, his light is with us still. Sometimes we stumble about in the dark and don't even recognise his light when we have it'.

The words are taken from Stormie Omartian's book:

'Just Enough Light for the Step I'm On: Trusting in God in the Tough Times'.
