FACULTY

In the Commissary Court of the Diocese of Canterbury

General Faculty following theft of lead from a church within the Diocese of Canterbury

Rosalind Morag Ellis QC, Commissary General of the City and Diocese of Canterbury and Official Principal of the Right Reverend Trevor by Divine Permission Bishop of Dover

Upon the petition of the Archdeacon of Canterbury or the Archdeacon of Maidstone or the Archdeacon of Ashford, permission is given to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of churches which suffer theft of lead or other metals from their buildings, without the need for further Faculty, subject to the following conditions (all of which must be fully complied with):-

1. The works permitted are limited to the replacement of the metal:-
 - (a) on a like-for-like basis, or
 - (b) replacement with an appropriate substitute material approved in advance in writing by the Diocesan Advisory Committee.
2. No works may be undertaken without prior consultation of and written approval by the Diocesan Advisory Committee and the appropriate Archdeacon.
3. No works may be undertaken without the prior written consent of the church's insurers.
4. The Diocesan Advisory Committee shall maintain a written record of all such approvals given and shall supply copies of these to the Diocesan Registry.

By Our direction leave is granted to dispense with the display of a Public Notices.

This Faculty is granted for a period of Twenty Five years, subject to such subsequent revision or revocation as the Court may deem appropriate.

Any works falling outside the strict terms of this General Faculty must be the subject of a separate Faculty petition.

This Faculty is duly authenticated by the seal of this Court.
