

Online Anna Chaplaincy Courses 2022 Canterbury and Rochester Dioceses

Anna Chaplaincy has an online training course delivered at regular intervals by Anna Chaplaincy lead for Kent, Julia Burton-Jones. It is aimed at those preparing to become Anna Friends or Anna Chaplains and will run twice in 2022.

- Learners attend six two-hour Zoom training sessions with Julia Burton-Jones, with guest Anna Chaplains also contributing to sessions.
- Participants receive The Anna Chaplaincy Handbook, which is essential reading.
- There is a maximum group size of 14 to allow learners to contribute and get to know each other during the programme.
- A learner manual has reading and tasks for each session, and follow-up resources.
- A Certificate of Attendance is provided on completion of the course.
- There are no assignments, and the course is not assessed, but participants are encouraged to present what they have learned to their church and write a reflection.
- Places are given only to those supported by their church in undertaking this training.
