

Online Anna Chaplaincy Course - Autumn 2021 Canterbury and Rochester Dioceses

Anna Chaplaincy has a new online training course delivered at regular intervals by Anna Chaplaincy lead for Kent, Julia Burton-Jones. It is aimed at those preparing to become Anna Friends or Anna Chaplains.

- Learners attend six two-hour Zoom training sessions with Julia Burton-Jones, with guest Anna Chaplains also contributing to three sessions.
- There is a maximum group size of 14 to allow learners to contribute and get to know each other during the programme.
- A learner manual has reading and tasks for each session, and follow-up resources. (Tasks and reading between sessions should take no more than two hours.)
- A Certificate of Attendance is provided on completion of the course.
- There are no assignments, and the course is not assessed, but participants are encouraged to present what they have learned to their church and write a reflection.
- Places are given only to those supported by their church in undertaking this training.
