

LEARN, NETWORK AND PRAY A DAY FOR LAY PEOPLE

Saturday 12th November, 9.30am-3.30pm
John Wallis Academy, Millbank Road, Ashford, TN23 3HG

A space for lay people to find encouragement and help equip them for their journey of everyday discipleship. The day will be held in prayer with chaplaincy available throughout from The Living Well team. Book for the whole day / morning / afternoon sessions

MORNING WORKSHOP: "MAGNIFYING MATTHEW"

Revd Dr Sue Woan will help us explore the gospel of Matthew including how it has been used in art and music. Matthew is the central gospel for the year ahead, this will appeal to you if you are involved in small groups, teaching or preaching or simply want to find out more in a fun way. With a previous background in teaching, Sue's ministry has been as a trainer and theological educator in Salisbury, Winchester and Norwich dioceses, before retiring to Kent.

AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS

Attend two workshops chosen from the following:

- Dwelling in the Word
- Being Creative with Holy Habits
- The Joy of Prayer
- Running on Empty (Self Care)
- Sharing Faith with Children and Young People
- Sharing Faith with Older People
- Caring for Creation
- Exploring Lay Ministry and Service

MORE INFORMATION AND BOOKINGS

For more information (including full workshop descriptions) and to book a place visit www.canterburydiocese.org/learn-network-and-pray or contact Nigel Collins or Sarah Lucas at Diocesan House

LEARN, NETWORK AND PRAY A DAY FOR LAY PEOPLE

Saturday 12th November, 9.30am-3.30pm
John Wallis Academy, Millbank Road, Ashford, TN23 3HG

A space for lay people to find encouragement and help equip them for their journey of everyday discipleship. The day will be held in prayer with chaplaincy available throughout from The Living Well team. Book for the whole day / morning / afternoon sessions

MORNING WORKSHOP: "MAGNIFYING MATTHEW"

Revd Dr Sue Woan will help us explore the gospel of Matthew including how it has been used in art and music. Matthew is the central gospel for the year ahead, this will appeal to you if you are involved in small groups, teaching or preaching or simply want to find out more in a fun way. With a previous background in teaching, Sue's ministry has been as a trainer and theological educator in Salisbury, Winchester and Norwich dioceses, before retiring to Kent.

AFTERNOON WORKSHOPS

Attend two workshops chosen from the following:

- Dwelling in the Word
- Being Creative with Holy Habits
- The Joy of Prayer
- Running on Empty (Self Care)
- Sharing Faith with Children and Young People
- Sharing Faith with Older People
- Caring for Creation
- Exploring Lay Ministry and Service

MORE INFORMATION AND BOOKINGS

For more information (including full workshop descriptions) and to book a place visit www.canterburydiocese.org/learn-network-and-pray or contact Nigel Collins or Sarah Lucas at Diocesan House

