St James, West Malvern is open every day 11.00am until 6pm

Please do call in

It is lovely to be able to come to church for worship and we want everyone to safe so please remember:

- To observe social distancing at all times especially coming into church
- The one way system when moving around – enter via south door, exit by west door
- We will offer Communion in one kind(bread) prior to receiving hands should be sanitised
- We won't be sharing the peace or passing the collection plate
- We cannot sing at the present time

The church service is also available via the conference line but please remember to improve the quality of sound for everyone by

- Muting your phone by using either the mute button or #6
- Being aware that there will be times especially during the administration that the phone line may be quiet.
