For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I needed clothes and you clothed me'

A few years ago, when I was at Theology College, Jamie and I hosted a minister from Pakistan, called Rev Naeem Javid. Naeem works tirelessly, in very difficult conditions to encourage peace between different faiths and to look after his flock who are desperately poor and persecuted.

Naeem has asked me to appeal to my churches on his behalf to help support 20 families who are homeless. He says that their situation is very critical. They particularly need warm clothes. The picture below was taken when a number of them we baptised recently.

On Sunday, many of us enjoyed a delicious meal and wonderful fellowship when we had our church Christmas Dinner. It has been agreed that £250 from the proceeds from the meal can be sent to Naeem for these families. I am deeply grateful for this generosity.

If you would like to help Naeem you can do so by giving money to either me or the church wardens. Please do include these families in your prayers.

Becky

Our Prayers

Give thanks for Revd Becky, Revd Sylvia Coke-Woods, Revd Canon Eric Knowles and Revd Canon Claire Griffiths and pray that they will all have a peaceful and blessed time over Christmas and the New Year.

Pray for the work of Crisis who we are supporting this Christmas

Give thanks for Richard, Jill and Elaine who have, with others, ensured we have been able to worship safely in 2021.

Pray for those who have been key workers throughout the pandemic, often putting themselves at risk, and who may be working over Christmas. Give thanks for their compassion and courage.

Give thanks that God listens to our prayers and answers them in many ways, sometimes not in the way we expect but they are always answered.

Please pray for those in need

The collects for the Christmas period

Sunday 19th December

Collect God our redeemer, who prepared the Blessed Virgin Mary to be the mother of your Son; grant that, as she looked for his coming as our saviour, so we may be ready to greet him when comes again as our judge, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God now and for ever.
Amen

COLLECT FOR CHRISTMAS DAY

Almighty God, you have given us thy only begotten Son to take our nature upon him and as at this time to be born of a pure virgin; grant that we being regenerate and made thy children by adoption and grace, may daily be renewed by thy Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the same Spirit, now and for ever. Amen

Collect for Sunday 26th December

Gracious Father, who gave the first martyr Stephen grace to pray for those who took up stones against him: grant that in all our sufferings for the truth we may learn to love even our enemies and to seek forgiveness for those who desire our hurt, looking up to heaven to him who was crucified for us, Jesus Christ, our mediator and advocate, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and for ever Amen

Collect for Second Sunday of Christmas 2nd January

Almighty God, in the birth of your Son you have poured on us the new light of your incarnate Word, and shown us the fullness of your love: help us to walk in his light and dwell in his love that we may know the fullness of his joy; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God now and for ever. Amen

Congratulations to Brian Jauncey who celebrates his 90th Birthday on 20th December
