

HOLY TRINITY and ST JAMES BULLETIN

21st February 2021 – The First Sunday of Lent

The Coronavirus prayer Almighty and All-loving God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we pray to you through Christ the Healer for those who suffer from the Coronavirus Covid-19 in England and across the world. We pray too for all who reach out to those who mourn the loss of each and every person who has died as a result of contracting the disease. Give wisdom to policymakers, skill to healthcare professionals and researchers, comfort to everyone in distress and a sense of calm to us all in these days of uncertainty This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord who showed compassion to the outcast, acceptance to the rejected and love to those to whom no love was shown. Amen.	Church Opening and accessing worship Coronavirus infection rates have continued to rise locally and nationally and so we have decided to suspend communal worship until the next lockdown review on 22nd February. We will continue with worship via the phone line and live streaming . For Private Prayer the church will be open 9.30am until 2.30pm on Wednesdays Hymn of the week – Anthem of the week holyltrinitychoirsmalvern.wordpress.com/anthem-for-the-week-1 www.holytrinitymalvern.org.uk/worship/hymn-for-the-week/

Our Prayers - Prayer Topics

Pray that the first session of our Zoom Lent Course Here - and There will be well attended and be helpful to those who take part.

Give thanks that organisations like CAP and the Food bank continue to work tirelessly in difficult situations to alleviate poverty and debt.

As Fairtrade Fortnight begins on Monday 22nd give thanks for all those businesses and organisations already promoting fairly traded goods and pray that more will follow their example.

Pray that more people will consider the choices they make because the Fairtrade Fortnight message is 'Choose the world you want'.

Pray that children and young people who are struggling with low self esteem and isolation through lockdown will be able to access the help they need.

Pray for those countries like South Sudan, Myanmar, Syria and Lebanon who are not only suffering with Coronavirus but with civil unrest and food shortages.

Those who are in need

Judith , David, Paula Smith, Paul Burston, David Powell, Richard Anselm, Mary Mop , Spencer Hare , Dave Butterworth, Mary Bowron , Muriel Bollen and sons, Michelle Finney and Rhiannon.

Those who mourn the passing of a loved one especially the family and friends of Reg Bollen,

Keeping in touch

It is really important that we all keep in touch and if you or someone you know is in need of help either spiritually or practically please email info@holyltrinitymalvern.org.uk and we will make contact within 24hours of the email being received. If you don't have access to email then please phone Reverend Becky Elliott (01684 573559) Richard Garth (01684 567385) or David Burley (01684 567004) and they will make the necessary arrangements.

Lent 2021

Lent Course – Here – and There starts this Wednesday at 7-30pm. There are places available so please come and join us for an hour and together we will reflect on the global pandemic in the context of Jesus' journey to the cross. The evenings take us through Mark's account of Jesus' journey to the cross (chapters 14 and 15). Connections are made between 'here', our world today, and 'there', the world of the Passion narrative. The connecting points are brought to life through voices talking about experiences in the pandemic, contrasted with a voice from a character in the Gospel. Each evening will be followed by a service of Compline at 8.30pm for those who wish to remain online. Each evening is self contained and so please feel free to come to as many as you can. To obtain the Zoom link please contact Becky revrebeccaelliott@btinternet.com

Lent in a Bag – 8 left – would you like one? An activity that can be undertaken at home by individual households. In the bag there will be some objects, readings and questions to help you in your Easter preparation. If you would like one please contact Richard Garth 01684 567385 or Elaine Bevan 01886 833817 and arrangements will be made to get one to you .

Easter Memorial Scroll

The Flower Guild would like to set up a Memorial Roll as part of the Easter celebrations as has been a tradition at Holy Trinity. It is going to be a problem collecting names and monies during lockdown so I would like to propose that we produce the Memorial Roll based on the names to be remembered that were submitted last year, but adding, in a different colour, those that have died this year (as identified on the weekly Bulletins) If you wish us to commemorate any other name please contact us with that person's full name, IN CAPITALS, to: - 7, Cockshot Road, WR14 2TT by Sunday 28th March. The Memorial Roll will be hung in the church porch from Easter Saturday. Any donations to the activities of the Flower Guild would be most welcome.

World Day of Prayer.

Friday 5th March 2pm This year the Malvern Committee have arranged for a Service to be on Zoom which will be facilitated by the Revd Nigel Coke-Woods. As an offering cannot be taken in the usual way this year there are 3 alternative ways to donate 1. go online at www.wwdp.org.uk 2. text 2021WDP 5 to 70085 to donate £5 (amount can be up to £40) 3. send a cheque made out to WDP to WDP, Commercial Road, Tunbridge Wells TN1 2RR If you would like to 'attend' this service please can you let me know and, nearer the time, and I will send you the link.

If you would like a copy of the service booklet, either for use with Zoom or for your own personal use, please let me know and I will get one to you.

Churches Together Malvern – National Call to Daily Prayer throughout February at 6pm

We invite you and your church families to join together in prayer, at 6pm every evening, for the nation and the effects of the pandemic.

The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God which transcends all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Phil 4: 6-7

Compline supplementary information - Psalm 119 v 17-32

- 17 O DO well unto thy servant : that I may live, and keep thy word.
18 Open thou mine eyes : that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.
19 I am a stranger upon earth : O hide not thy commandments from me.
20 My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire : that it hath alway unto thy judgements.
21 Thou hast rebuked the proud : and cursed are they that do err from thy commandments.
22 O turn from me shame and rebuke : for I have kept thy testimonies.
23 Princes also did sit and speak against me : but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.
24 For thy testimonies are my delight : and my counsellors.
25 MY soul cleaveth to the dust : O quicken thou me, according to thy word.
26 I have acknowledged my ways, and thou heardest me : O teach me thy statutes.
27 Make me to understand the way of thy commandments : and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.
28 My soul melteth away for very heaviness : comfort thou me according unto thy word.
29 Take from me the way of lying : and cause thou me to make much of thy law.
30 I have chosen the way of truth : and thy judgements have I laid before me.
31 I have stuck unto thy testimonies : O Lord, confound me not.
32 I will run the way of thy commandments : when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

Prayer of General Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men; We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.
