DIOCESE OF WORCESTER

Important Diocesan Education Team Update #10, Wed 29 April 2020

Dear colleagues,

We do hope all in your school families are well and enjoying the week as much as is possible.

Further to our last update, just a reminder that the Oak National Academy will stream their first act of Collective Worship in collaboration with the Church of England tomorrow (Thursday 30th April 2020) at 10am. The Archbishop of Canterbury will lead the nation in the largest act of Collective Worship that the country has ever seen and you can access further details here.

The Church of England Education Office (CEEO) has advised that the video will go live on the homepage of the TES News YouTube channel tomorrow at 10am. As the video is not yet live, a direct link is not available at the moment.

Do join in tomorrow and keep your eyes peeled for future weekly national acts of online Collective Worship.

Kind regards,

Laura

Important Diocesan Education Team Update #11, Thurs 30 April 2020

Dear colleagues,

Further to yesterday's email about this morning's national act of Collective Worship, I am pleased to advise that the direct link to the video is now available.

Many thanks for your patience. We do hope you enjoy your time in worship together this morning.

Kind regards,

Laura
